Core Policies

1.0 Welcome

1.1 A Welcome Policy

Now that you are with us, you may still have many questions about the Company and your role in it. This handbook is designed to give you general answers to those questions, and to give you insight into the Company's relationship with its employees. It is really a set of policy guidelines and a statement of the Company's philosophy; as you read it, read it both for its literal meaning and for the philosophy it conveys. This will help you immeasurably as you go about your day-to-day activities. Sign the acknowledgement at the end to show that you have read, understand, and agree to the contents of this handbook.

The Company will comply with federal and state laws, which supersede any policies and conflicts in this handbook if there are any differences. We reserve the right to revise, supplement, or rescind any or all of the policies and/or portions of this handbook at any time, as we deem appropriate at our sole and absolute discretion. We will use reasonable effort to notify employees of such changes to the handbook as they occur. This handbook is not and cannot be construed as a contract of employment between you and the Company. As noted above, it is a guide to provide you information about the Company and your role in it.

Since this is a handbook and not a comprehensive policy manual as such, many details of our various policies are not included but can be obtained by contacting the Human Resources Department.

Ziebart conducts its personnel activities on one basic principle--that you, the individual employee, are important. I hope that this booklet conveys that meaning, and that your career with Ziebart is a rewarding and satisfying one.

1.2 At-Will Employment

Your employment with Ziebart International Corporation is on an "at-will" basis. This means your employment may be terminated at any time, with or without notice and with or without cause. Likewise, we respect your right to leave Ziebart International Corporation at any time, with or without notice and with or without cause.

Nothing in this handbook or any other company document should be understood as creating a contract, guaranteed or continued employment, a right to termination only "for cause," or any other guarantee of continued benefits or employment. Only the President/CEO has the authority to make promises or negotiate with regard to guaranteed or continued employment, and any such promises are only effective if placed in writing and signed by the President/CEO.

Nothing in this handbook will be interpreted, applied, or enforced to interfere with, restrain, or coerce employees in the exercise of their rights under Section 7 of the National Labor Relations Act.

2.0 Introductory Language and Policies

2.1 About the Company

Our Promise

Backed by over 63 years of experience, we promise to provide exceptional customer service and the highest-level quality products that exceed our customers' expectations. Our customers include our franchised dealers and employees. The Company believes that by satisfying the requirements of our customers, we enable them to satisfy the requirements of their customers: the private consumers, car dealers, and fleet operators.

What We Do

We provide customers a full range of premium automotive appearance and protection services with courtesy, warmth and respect.

How We Do It

We offer customers the widest variety of options, factory-trained technicians, warranted products, and unmatched expertise.

Why It Matters

Our customers feel pride in knowing that they have made the best choice by selecting a brand proven to be around for the long-term.

Our Strategic Foundation

Mission

To support our customer's pride in vehicle ownership, to protect their investment with the highest quality products, services, exceptional workmanship, and a knowledgeable staff that provides solutions for extending the life of all vehicles.

Vision

To be the preferred choice for automotive appearance and protection services.

Values

Honesty, Passion, Innovation, Teamwork, Legacy

2.2 Ethics Code

Ziebart International Corporation will conduct business honestly and ethically wherever operations are maintained. We strive to improve the quality of our services, products, and operations and will maintain a reputation for honesty, fairness, respect, responsibility, integrity, trust, and sound business judgment. Our managers and employees are expected to adhere to high standards of business and personal integrity as a representation of our business practices, at all times consistent with their duty of loyalty to Ziebart International Corporation.

We expect that officers, directors, and employees will not knowingly misrepresent Ziebart International Corporation and will not speak on behalf of the company unless specifically authorized. The confidentiality of trade secrets, proprietary information, and similar confidential commercially-sensitive information (i.e. financial or sales records/reports, marketing or business strategies/plans, product development, customer lists, patents, trademarks, etc.) about Ziebart International Corporation or operations, or that of our customers or partners, is to be treated with discretion and only disseminated on a need-to-know basis (see policies relating to privacy).

Violation of the Code of Ethics can result in discipline, up to and including termination of employment. The degree of discipline imposed may be influenced by the existence of voluntary disclosure of any ethical violation and whether or not the violator cooperated in any subsequent investigation.

2.3 Mission Statement

To support our customer's pride in vehicle ownership, to protect their investment with the highest quality products, services, exceptional workmanship, and a knowledgeable staff that provides solutions for extending the life of all vehicles.

We see a future where people consider vehicle ownership as a part of a better life because they drive a vehicle, they are truly proud to own. We will create an atmosphere where knowledge, trust, reputation, and workmanship become the new standard or measurement.

2.4 Revisions to Handbook

This handbook is our attempt to keep you informed of the terms and conditions of your employment, including company policies and procedures. The handbook is not a contract. Ziebart International Corporation reserves the right to revise, add, or delete from this handbook as we determine to be in our best interest, except the policy concerning at-will employment. When changes are made to the policies and guidelines contained herein, we will endeavor to communicate them in a timely fashion, typically in a written supplement to the handbook or in a posting on company bulletin boards.

3.0 Hiring and Orientation Policies

3.1 Conflicts of Interest

Ziebart International Corporation is concerned with conflicts of interest that create actual or potential job-related concerns, especially in the areas of confidentiality, customer relations, safety, security, and morale. If there is any actual or potential conflict of interest between you and a competitor, supplier, distributor, or contractor to the company, you must disclose it to your manager. If an actual or potential conflict of interest is determined to exist, Ziebart International Corporation will take such steps as it deems necessary to reduce or eliminate this conflict.

Ziebart International Corporation encourages any employee who so desires, and who meets the requirements to become a franchisee, to pursue that career path. However, it must be understood that once an employee is approved by the Company to become a Ziebart franchisee, the relationship between that employee and the Company changes. The employee becomes a customer of the Company. This creates the potential for conflicts of interest for that employee, for as long as he or she would remain on the Company payroll.

Therefore, the Company may, at its discretion, request the resignation of any employee under the following circumstances:

1. The employee has been approved to become a franchised Ziebart dealer.
2. The employee's personal circumstances change in any way so that the potential for a conflict of interest is created. This should be discussed with your supervisor and/or Human Resources if there are questions or uncertainty.

3.2 Disability Accommodation

Ziebart International Corporation complies with the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), the Pregnancy Discrimination Act, and all applicable state and local fair employment practice laws and is committed to providing equal employment opportunities to qualified individuals with disabilities, including disabilities related to pregnancy, childbirth, and related conditions. Consistent with this commitment, the Company will provide reasonable accommodation to otherwise qualified individuals where appropriate to allow the individual to perform the essential functions of the job, unless doing so would create an undue hardship on the business.

If you require an accommodation because of your disability, it is your responsibility to notify your manager or Human Resources. You may be asked to include relevant information such as:

- A description of the proposed accommodation.
- The reason you need an accommodation.
- How the accommodation will help you perform the essential functions of your job.

After receiving your request, the Company will engage in an interactive dialogue with you to determine the precise limitations of your disability and explore potential reasonable accommodations that could overcome those limitations. Where appropriate, we may need your permission to obtain additional information from your medical provider. All medical information received by the Company in connection with a request for accommodation will be treated as confidential.

The Company encourages you to suggest specific reasonable accommodations that you believe would allow you to perform your job. However, the Company is not required to make the specific accommodation requested by you and may provide an alternative accommodation, to the extent any reasonable accommodation can be made without imposing an undue hardship on the Company.

If leave is provided as a reasonable accommodation, such leave may run concurrently with leave under the federal Family and Medical Leave Act and/or any other leave where permitted by state and federal law.

The Company will not discriminate or retaliate against employees for requesting an accommodation.

3.3 Employment Authorization Verification

New hires will be required to complete Section 1 of Federal Form I-9 on the first day of paid employment and must present acceptable documents authorized by the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services proving identity and employment authorization no later than the third business day following the start of employment with Ziebart International Corporation. If you are currently employed and have not complied with this requirement or if your status has changed, inform Human Resources.

If you are authorized to work in this country for a limited period of time, you will be required to submit proof of renewed employment eligibility prior to expiration of that period to remain employed by Ziebart International Corporation.

3.4 EEO Statement and Nonharassment Policy

Equal Opportunity Statement

Ziebart International Corporation is committed to the principles of equal employment. We are committed to complying with all federal, state, and local laws providing equal employment opportunities, and all other employment laws and regulations. It is our intent to maintain a work environment that is free of harassment, discrimination, or retaliation because of age, height, weight, familial status, marital status, race, color, national origin, ancestry, religion, sex, sexual orientation (including transgender status, gender identity or expression), pregnancy (including childbirth, lactation, and related medical conditions), physical or mental disability, genetic information (including testing and characteristics), veteran status, uniformed servicemember status, or any other status protected by federal, state, or local laws. The Company is dedicated to the fulfillment of this policy in regard to all aspects of employment, including but not limited to recruiting, hiring, placement, transfer, training, promotion, rates of pay, and other compensation, termination, and all other terms, conditions, and privileges of employment.

The Company will conduct a prompt and thorough investigation of all allegations of discrimination, harassment, retaliation, or any violation of the Equal Employment Opportunity Policy in a confidential manner. The Company will take appropriate corrective action, if and where warranted. The Company prohibits retaliation against employees who provide information about, complain about, or assist in the investigation of any complaint of discrimination or violation of the Equal Employment Opportunity Policy.

We are all responsible for upholding this policy. You may discuss questions regarding equal employment opportunity with your manager or any other designated member of management.

Policy Against Workplace Harassment

Ziebart International Corporation has a strict policy against all types of workplace harassment, including sexual harassment and other forms of workplace harassment based upon an individual's age, height, weight, familial status, marital status, race, color, national origin, ancestry, religion, sex, sexual orientation (including transgender status, gender identity or expression), pregnancy (including childbirth, lactation, and related medical conditions), physical or mental disability, genetic information (including testing and characteristics), veteran status, uniformed servicemember status, or any other status protected by federal, state, or local laws. All forms of harassment of, or by, employees, vendors, visitors, customers, and clients are strictly prohibited and will not be tolerated.

Sexual Harassment

Sexual harassment is defined as unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature when (1) submission to such conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly as a term or condition of an individual's employment; (2) submission to, or rejection of such conduct by an individual is used as the basis for employment decisions affecting such individual; or (3) such conduct has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with an individual's work performance or creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive work environment.

While it is not possible to identify every act that constitutes or may constitute sexual harassment, the following are some examples of sexual harassment:

- Unwelcome requests for sexual favors;
- Lewd or derogatory comments or jokes;
- Comments regarding sexual behavior or the body of another;
- Sexual innuendo and other vocal activity such as catcalls or whistles;
- Obscene letters, notes, emails, invitations, photographs, cartoons, articles, or other written or pictorial materials of a sexual nature;
- Repeated requests for dates after being informed that interest is unwelcome;
- Retaliating against another for refusing a sexual advance or reporting an incident of possible sexual harassment to the Company or any government agency;
- Offering or providing favors or employment benefits such as promotions, favorable evaluations, favorable assigned duties, or shifts, etc., in exchange for sexual favors; and
- Any unwanted physical touching or assaults or blocking or impeding movements.

Other Harassment

Other workplace harassment is verbal or physical conduct that insults or shows hostility or aversion towards an individual because of the individual's age, height, weight, familial status, marital status, race, color, national origin, ancestry, religion, sex, sexual orientation (including transgender status, gender identity or expression), pregnancy (including childbirth, lactation, and related medical conditions), physical or mental disability, genetic information (including testing and characteristics), veteran status, uniformed servicemember status, or any other status protected by federal, state, or local laws.

Again, while it is not possible to list all the circumstances that may constitute other forms of workplace harassment, the following are some examples of conduct that may constitute workplace harassment:

- The use of disparaging or abusive words or phrases, slurs, negative stereotyping, or threatening, intimidating, or hostile acts that relate to the above protected categories;
- Written or graphic material that insults, stereotypes, or shows aversion or hostility towards an individual or group because of one of the above protected categories and that is placed on walls, bulletin boards, email, voicemail, or elsewhere on our premises, or circulated in the workplace; and
- A display of symbols, slogans, or items that are associated with hate or intolerance towards any select group.

Reporting Discrimination and Harassment

If you feel that you have witnessed or have been subjected to any form of discrimination or harassment, immediately notify Human Resources (248) 837-4010.

The Company prohibits retaliation against employees who, based on a reasonable belief, provide information about, complain, or assist in the investigation of any complaint of harassment or discrimination.

We will promptly and thoroughly investigate any claim and take appropriate action where we find a claim has merit. To the extent possible, we will retain the confidentiality of those who report suspected or alleged violations of the harassment policy.

Discipline for violation of this policy may include, but is not limited to, reprimand, suspension, demotion, transfer, and discharge. If the Company determines that harassment or discrimination occurred, corrective action will be taken to effectively end the harassment. As necessary, the Company may monitor any incident of harassment or discrimination to assure the inappropriate behavior has stopped. In all cases, the Company will follow up as necessary to ensure that no individual is retaliated against for making a complaint or cooperating with an investigation.

3.5 Employment of Relatives and Friends

Relatives of a currently employed worker generally are considered for employment based on their qualifications. However, the hiring or employment of an employee's relative could result in prohibited employment relationships.

Contact Human Resources if you need further clarification.

3.6 Job Descriptions

Ziebart International Corporation maintains a job description for each position. If you do not have a current copy of your job description, you should request one from Human Resources.

Job descriptions prepared by the Company serve as an outline only. Due to business needs, you may be required to perform job duties that are not within your written job description. Furthermore, the Company may have to revise, add to, or delete from your job duties per business needs. On occasion, the Company may need to revise job descriptions with or without advance notice to employees.

If you have any questions regarding your job description or the scope of your duties, please speak with your manager.

3.7 New Hires and Introductory Periods

The first 90 days of your employment is considered an introductory period. During this period, you will become familiar with Ziebart International Corporation and your job responsibilities, and we will have the opportunity to monitor the quality and value of your performance and make any necessary adjustments in your job description or responsibilities. Your introductory period with the Company can be shortened or lengthened as deemed appropriate by management and Human Resources. Completion of this introductory period does not imply guaranteed or continued employment. Nothing that occurs during or after this period should be construed to change the nature of the "at-will" employment relationship.

3.8 Posting of Openings

Ziebart International desires to promote qualified employees from within where it believes that is possible, consistent with the need to assure that all positions are staffed by highly competent individuals. New job openings generally will be posted on the bulletin board, as well as on our company website www.ziebart.com. You may be eligible for a referral bonus when you refer new employees (please see the Employee Referral Program for more details).

3.9 Religious Accommodation

Ziebart International Corporation is dedicated to treating its employees equally and with respect and recognizes the diversity of their religious beliefs. All employees may request an accommodation when their religious beliefs cause a deviation from the Company dress code or the individual's schedule, basic job duties, or other aspects of employment. The Company will consider the request but reserves the right to offer its own accommodation to the extent permitted by law. Some, but not all, of the factors that will be considered are cost, the effect that an accommodation will have on current established policies, and the burden on operations — including other employees — when determining a reasonable accommodation. At no time will the Company question the validity of a person's belief.

If you require a religious accommodation, speak with Human Resources.

3.10 Training Program

In most cases, and for most departments, training employees is done on an individual basis by the department manager. Even if you have had previous experience in the specified functions of your job duties, it is necessary for you to learn our specific procedures, as well as the responsibilities of the specific position. If you ever feel you require additional training, consult your manager.

4.0 Wage and Hour Policies

4.1 Accommodations for Nursing Mothers

Ziebart International Corporation will provide nursing mothers reasonable unpaid break time to express milk for their infant child(ren) for up to one year following the child's birth.

If you are nursing, you will be provided with a space, other than a restroom, that is shielded from view and free from intrusion from co-workers and the public.

Expressed milk can be stored in the company refrigerator. Sufficiently mark or label your milk to avoid confusion for other employees who may share the refrigerator.

Break time should, if possible, be taken concurrently with any other break time already provided. If you are nonexempt, clock out for any time taken that does not run concurrently with normally scheduled rest periods.

You must make reasonable efforts to not disrupt Company operations.

You are encouraged to discuss the length and frequency of these breaks with your manager or Human Resources.

This policy applies only to employees classified as nonexempt under the Fair Standards Labor Act.

4.2 Attendance

Good attendance and punctuality are required of every employee. Routine appointments with doctors, dentists and other personal matters should be arranged so they will not conflict with working hours. If this is impossible, time off may be granted. Such time off requires approval from your manager. (Refer to "Paid Time Off" in the Benefits Section of this manual for further information.)

If you know ahead of time that you will be absent or late, provide reasonable advance notice to your manager. You may be required to provide documentation of any medical or other excuse for being absent or late where permitted by applicable law.

Ziebart International Corporation reserves the right to apply unused vacation, sick time, or other paid time off to unauthorized absences where permitted by applicable law. Absences resulting from approved leave, vacation, or legal requirements are exceptions to the policy.

The Company reserves the right to discipline and, if necessary, to discharge any employee who, in the sole judgment of the Company, is excessively absent, or who misuses or abuses these policies in any way.

Call-in Procedure

If you are going to be absent or tardy, it is your responsibility to call in no later than thirty (30) minutes after your starting time and speak personally to your Manager. If your manager is not available, you may leave a message with Human Resources.

4.3 Business Expenses

The purpose of this policy is to define approved nontravel business expenses and the authority for incurring and approving such expenses at Ziebart International Corporation.

Approved business expenses are the reasonable and necessary expenses incurred by employees to achieve legitimate business purposes that are not covered by normal company procurement processes.

Business Meetings (Employer-Sponsored Events and Meetings)

Ziebart International Corporation pays for expenses necessary to achieve a valid business purpose when meetings are held with customers, vendors, or other Ziebart employees. The most senior individual present is to pay for and report all expenses.

Ziebart International Corporation will make every effort to have a master account set up for company-wide and large group events. However, if you are at a small meeting, pay individually and submit for reimbursement accordingly.

Entertainment

Ziebart International Corporation pays for entertainment expenses only when they clearly benefit the company and include customers and are promotional in nature. The most senior individual present is to pay for and report all expenses.

Technical and Training Seminars

Ziebart International Corporation pays for expenses associated with attendance at classes and seminars that enhance job-related skills. Prior approval must be obtained by your manager.

Gifts

You may present gifts only under exceptional circumstances and with prior approval of the appropriate company officer.

Other Expenses

Ziebart International Corporation will pay for postage and telephone expenses that are for business purposes.

Reporting

Report approved expenses on the standard expense report form and include a description of the expense, its business purpose, date, place, and the participants.

4.4 Direct Deposit

Ziebart International Corporation encourages all employees to enroll in direct deposit. Your pay will be deposited in your account and be accessible to you on payday. You no longer have to go to the bank to cash your check or be concerned about being out of town on payday. We urge you to consider this convenience.

If you would like to take advantage of direct deposit, see Human Resources. Typically, the bank will begin the direct deposit of your payroll within 30 calendar days after you submit your completed form.

If you have selected the direct deposit payroll service, an explanation of your deductions will be available to you on paydays.

4.5 Introduction to Wage and Hour Policies

At Ziebart International Corporation, pay depends on a wide range of factors, including pay scale surveys, individual effort, profits, and market forces. If you have any questions about your compensation, including matters such as paid time off, commissions, overtime, benefits, or paycheck deductions, speak with Human Resources.

4.6 Job Abandonment

If you fail to show up for work or fail to call in with an acceptable reason for the absence for a period of three consecutive days, you will be considered to have abandoned your job and voluntarily resigned from Ziebart International Corporation.

4.7 Meal and Rest Periods

Ziebart International Corporation strives to provide a safe and healthy work environment and complies with all federal and state regulations regarding meal and rest periods. Check with your Manager regarding procedures and schedules for rest and meal breaks. The Company requests that employees accurately observe and record meal and rest periods. If you know in advance that you may not be able to take your scheduled break or meal period, let your manager know; in addition, notify your manager as soon as possible if you were unable to or prohibited from taking a meal or rest period.

4.8 Overtime

If you are nonexempt, you may qualify for overtime pay. All overtime must be approved in advance, in writing, by your manager.

At certain times Ziebart International Corporation may require you to work overtime. We will attempt to give as much notice as possible in this instance. However, advance notice may not always be possible. Working unauthorized overtime may result in discipline, up to and including discharge.

Unless otherwise required or exempted by law, overtime pay of one and one-half times your regular rate of pay is paid for any hours worked in excess of 40 hours in a workweek. Holidays, vacation days, and sick leave days do not count as time worked for computing overtime.

4.9 Paycheck Deductions

Ziebart International Corporation is required by law to make certain deductions from your pay each pay period, including deductions for federal, state and city income taxes, Social Security and Medicare (FICA) taxes, and any other deductions required under law or by court order for wage garnishments. The amount of your tax deductions will depend on your earnings and the information you list on your federal Form W-4 and applicable state withholding form. Permissible deductions for exempt employees may also include, but are not limited to, deductions for full-day absences for reasons other than sickness or disability and certain disciplinary suspensions. You may also authorize certain voluntary deductions from your paycheck where permissible under state law. Your deductions will be reflected on your wage statement. If you have any questions about deductions from your pay, contact Human Resources.

Ziebart International Corporation will not make deductions to your pay that are prohibited by federal, state, or local law. Review your paycheck for errors each pay period and immediately report any discrepancies to Human Resources.

You will be reimbursed in full for any isolated, inadvertent, or improper deductions, as defined by law. If an error is found, you will receive an immediate adjustment, which will be paid no later than your next regular payday.

The Company will not retaliate against employees who report erroneous deductions in accordance with this policy.

4.10 Pay Period

The workweek is defined as Sunday through Saturday. Paychecks are distributed every Friday for hours worked in the previous week with the exception of the Store Manager.

The standard pay period for Store Managers is semimonthly. Pay dates are closest to the 15th or on and the last business day of each month or before.

If the holiday falls on a Friday, payday is the last working day before that.

Review your paycheck for accuracy. If you find an issue, report it to Human Resources immediately.

4.11 Recording Time

Ziebart International Corporation is required by applicable federal, state, and local laws to keep accurate records of hours worked by certain employees. To ensure that Ziebart International Corporation has complete and accurate time records and that employees are paid for all hours worked, nonexempt employees are required to record all working time using ADP (or current applicable payroll service). Speak with your Manager or Human Resources for specific instructions.

You must accurately record all of your time to ensure you are paid for all hours worked and must follow established company procedures for recording your hours worked. Time must be recorded as follows:

- Immediately before starting your shift.
- Immediately after finishing work, before your meal period.
- Immediately before resuming work, after your meal period.
- Immediately after finishing work.
- Immediately before and after any other time away from work.

If you are required to clock in, you should clock in no more than five minutes ahead of your start time and clock out no later than five minutes after your scheduled shift.

Notify your manager or Human Resources of any pay discrepancies, unrecorded or misrecorded work hours.

Falsifying time entries is strictly prohibited. Falsifying time entries includes working "off the clock." If you falsify your own time records, or the time records of co-workers, or if you work off the clock, you will be subject to discipline up to and including termination. Immediately report to Human Resources any employee, supervisor, or manager who falsifies your time entries or encourages or requires you to falsify your time entries or work off the clock.

4.12 Travel Expenses

The purpose of this policy is to define approved business travel expenses and the authority for incurring and approving such expenses at Ziebart International Corporation.

Travel expenses are the reasonable and necessary expenses incurred by employees when traveling on approved Ziebart International Corporation business trips. Travel is limited to business activities for which other means of communication is inadequate and for which prior approval from your manager has been received. Prior authorization is not required for Officers or direct reports to the President/CEO.

Each employee is responsible for the effective control of travel and entertainment expenses. Good judgment should be used interpreting these policies and in situations not expressly covered.

Advances

Travel advances are given on a special request basis and require prior approval by a department head or officer. If it is determined to be a permanent advance, a copy of the request will be placed in the employee file. This will be deducted at the time of their termination of employment.

Normally, you will be expected to use personal credit cards and/or your own cash and submit approved expenses on the standard Expense Report Form.

Travel Expenses

Ziebart International Corporation pays the actual amounts incurred for appropriate expenses when you are on travel assignments. Examples of typical expenses include the following:

- Airline tickets.
- TSA Pre-check.
- Clear (Officer/Director Only).
- Nexus (Officer/Director or anyone approved for a business case).
- Meals. Meal per diem is as follows in U.S. Dollars: Breakfast $15.00 Lunch $25.00 Dinner $40.00 or $80.00 daily. Amounts incurred in excess of the per diem will be the obligation of the traveler. Cost of alcoholic beverages will not be reimbursed.
- Lodging.
- Car rental including gasoline, bus, taxi, parking, and tolls.
- Telephone and internet connection fees at hotel/airport if necessary.
- Faxes and hotel business center services.
- Laundry and dry cleaning (trips exceeding four consecutive days, or if a trip is extended beyond the original expected duration).
- Business supplies and services.
- Associated gratuities.
- Other expenses necessary to achieve business purposes.
- Immunization costs when traveling internationally, as required.

Family Members

Ziebart International Corporation will pay the travel expenses of spouses or other family members only when their presence is necessary to the business purpose of the trip and when approved in advance in writing by an officer or above.

Air Travel

Flight reservations and cancellations should be made through the corporate designated travel agency and charged to the company credit card on file. Use economy or tourist class fares when traveling on Ziebart International Corporation business. In addition, private, noncommercial aircraft or chartered aircraft are not to be used. No more than two employees at the vice president level and no more than four employees from the same department may travel together on the same aircraft unless specifically approved in advance by the company President/CEO. In no circumstances will both the Chief Executive Officer and the Senior Executive Vice President travel on the same flight.

Airfare reservations made outside of the company designated travel agency are to be charged to personal credit cards and subsequently submitted for reimbursement on a monthly expense report.

Frequent Traveler Programs

Traveling employees may retain frequent traveler credits for their own use. Employees may not, however, request a change in airline or trip routing which would result in higher costs to the company merely to accommodate a particular program or to maximize mileage credits.

Hotels

Hotel reservations and cancellations should be made through the corporate designated travel agency. The travel agency has many arrangements with several hotel chains for discounted corporate rates. The use of Travel by Pathfinders, Inc. will ensure that we take full advantage of these rates. All accommodations are for single rooms.

In certain cases, a particular hotel may be required due to such factors as the location of a conference being attended, or proximity to a specific customer location. In such cases the employee can make the choice of a specific hotel and should request corporate discounts whenever available. Reservations will be guaranteed for late arrival with the employee's credit card. It is the responsibility of the traveler to contact the corporate designated travel agency or the hotel(s) for changes in plans affecting guaranteed room reservations. Employees should record the hotel cancellation numbers for future verification.

Neither in-room movies nor refreshment bars are approved Ziebart International Corporation expenses.

Insurance

Ziebart International Corporation does not pay for personal travel insurance for employees.

Rental Cars

Reservations must be made through the corporate designated travel agency. Car rentals should be limited to mid-size cars unless there are more than two people. Three or more people may use a full-size car. The employee must allow the corporate designated travel agency to shop for the best rates.

The Company is not responsible for traffic violations or parking tickets incurred by employees.

Collision damage waiver (CDW), Personal Accident Insurance (PAI), Loss Damage Waiver (LDW) and Supplemental Liability Protection (SLP) for domestic car rentals should be declined as they are covered by the Company's insurance program. The purchase of any insurance coverage for domestic car rentals is the personal expense of the traveler.

For international travel, the CDW, PAI, LDW and SLP should be accepted and will be reimbursed.

Gasoline charges for rental cars are reimbursable.

Personal Vehicles

When using your own vehicle for business purposes, you must maintain insurance coverage as required by law and maintain a valid driver's license. Travel between your home and primary office is not considered to be business travel. You may not use your personal vehicle for business travel without authorization. Every attempt should be made to utilize the use of courier and delivery services in order to avoid hazard of liability and the time away from work. You will be reimbursed for vehicle use at the standard IRS mileage rate.

Mileage reimbursement will be made:

1. between the employee's office/home and the airport for business travel;
2. when traveling to business destinations away from the employee's normal place of business, and
3. to and from the employee's place of business for business-related trips.

Other Ground Transportation

Reasonable and customary business-related expenses will be reimbursed. Employees should use discretion, and receipts must be provided for expenses. Expenses covered include:

- Charges associated with ground travel, including trips to and from the airport (with the approval from manager);
- Parking: airport parking charges while out of town on business, as well as charges incurred for parking a rental car on a business trip; and
- Long-term airport lots - use for all trips less than two days
- Long-term off lots - use for all trips greater than two days
- Tolls
- Tips

Reporting

All expenses associated with employee travel, customer entertainment, and incidental expenses must be submitted on an Expense Report Form. This form will serve to control business expenditures and to conform to tax reporting requirements.

Each employee is responsible for providing the required records to substantiate expenses being submitted for reimbursement. Expenses are reimbursable only through an expense report. Personal expenses should not be billed to the Company. The original receipt portion of airline tickets must be attached to the expense report. A hotel invoice detailing daily charges should be submitted for reimbursement of lodging expenses. Credit card or charge card receipts must be attached, with other supporting documentation.

Original invoices and receipts should be provided whenever possible, and if such originals are lost, then a statement to that effect, signed by the employee and approved by the employee's manager, should accompany the expense report. In some instances, the business expense is only evidenced by a line item on the employee's credit card or charge card statement; in such cases a copy of the statement with the expense highlighted will suffice. In cases where credit cards cannot be used, cash receipts for expenses should be submitted with a statement to support the expenditures.

Expenses generally should be reported individually, not combined, on the expense report.

The employee submitting the expenses is responsible for the mathematical accuracy of the expense report. Managers who approve expense reports are responsible for conducting a review of the expenses submitted to ensure compliance with this policy, and for justifying, with adequate explanations, any exceptions to the policy. Improperly completed expense reports will be returned for clarification.

Expense reports must be submitted on a timely basis, not to exceed one month following the period of the expenditure whenever practical. Reports must be approved by the traveler's supervisor. Expense reports over $5,000 require approval of the Vice President and Treasurer of Ziebart International.

Travel Reservations

Airline travel, rental cars, and hotels must be booked through the corporate designated travel agency in order to be reimbursed.

The President or Chief Executive Officer must authorize any deviation from this policy.

4.13 Travel Time Pay

Some nonexempt positions within Ziebart International Corporation require travel. The Company pays nonexempt employees for travel time in accordance with federal and state law. For purposes of this policy, the regular workday is defined as:

8:00 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. – Branch Locations with one hour for lunch. This definition applies to normal workdays (Monday through Friday) and to weekends (Saturday and Sunday).

Home to Work Travel

If you travel from home before the regular workday and return to your home at the end of the workday, you are engaged in ordinary home to work travel, which is not work time.

Home to Work on a Special One Day Assignment in Another City

If you regularly work at a fixed location in one city and you are given a special one day assignment in another city, but return home the same day, the time spent in traveling to and returning from the other city is work time, except that the Company may deduct/not count that time you would normally spend commuting to the regular work site.

Travel That Is All in a Day's Work

Your time spent in travel as part of your principal activity, such as travel from job site to job site during the workday, is work time and must be counted as hours worked.

Travel Away from Home Community

Travel that keeps you away from home overnight is travel away from home. Travel away from home is clearly work time when it cuts across your workday. The time is not only hours worked on regular working days during normal working hours but also during corresponding hours on nonworking days. The Company will not consider as work time that time spent in travel away from home outside of your regular working hours as a passenger on an airplane, train, boat, bus, or automobile.

Work Performed While Traveling

Any work you perform while traveling must be counted as hours worked.

Calculating and Reporting Travel Time

You are responsible for accurately tracking, calculating, and reporting your travel time. Travel time should be calculated by rounding up to the nearest quarter hour.

4.14 Wage Disclosure Protection

In accordance with Ohio law, Ziebart International Corporation will not:

- Require you, as a condition of employment, to refrain from disclosing your wages;
- Require you to sign a waiver or other document that proposes to deny you the right to disclose your wages; or
- Discharge, formally discipline, retaliate, or otherwise discriminate against your job advancement for disclosing your wages.

However, if you have access to or knowledge of the compensation information of other employees as a part of your essential job functions, you may not disclose that information to individuals who do not otherwise have access to it, unless the disclosure is:

- In response to a formal complaint or charge;
- Part of an investigation, proceeding, hearing, or action, including an investigation conducted by the Company; or
- Consistent with the legal duty of the Company to furnish information.

If you believe that you have been discriminated or retaliated against in violation of this policy, immediately report your concerns to Human Resources.

Nothing in this policy will be enforced to interfere with, restrain or coerce, or retaliate against employees regarding their rights under the National Labor Relations Act.

5.0 Performance, Discipline, Layoff, and Termination

5.1 Criminal Activity/Arrests

Ziebart International Corporation will report all criminal activity in accordance with applicable law. Involvement in criminal activity while employed by the Company, whether on or off Company property, may result in disciplinary action including suspension or termination of employment.

You are expected to be on the job, ready to work, when scheduled. Inability to report to work as scheduled may lead to disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment, for violation of an attendance policy or job abandonment.

5.2 Disciplinary Process

Violation of Ziebart International Corporation policies or procedures may result in disciplinary action including demotion, transfer, leave without pay, or termination of employment. The Company encourages a system of progressive discipline depending on the type of prohibited conduct. However, the Company is not required to engage in progressive discipline and may discipline or terminate employees who violate the rules of conduct, or where the quality or value of their work fails to meet expectations at any time. Again, any attempt at progressive discipline does not imply that your employment is anything other than on an "at-will" basis.

In appropriate circumstances, management will first provide you with a verbal warning, then with one or more written warnings, and if the conduct is not sufficiently altered, eventual demotion, transfer, forced leave, or termination of employment. Your manager will make every effort possible to allow you to respond to any disciplinary action taken. Understand that while the Company is concerned with consistent enforcement of our policies, we are not obligated to follow any disciplinary or grievance procedure and that depending on the circumstances, you may be disciplined or terminated without any prior warning or procedure.

5.3 Exit Interview

You may be asked to participate in an exit interview when you leave Ziebart International Corporation. The purpose of the exit interview is to provide management with greater insight into your decision to leave employment; identify any trends requiring attention or opportunities for improvement; and to assist the Company in developing effective recruitment and retention strategies. Your cooperation in the exit interview process is appreciated.

5.4 Open Door/Conflict Resolution Process

Ziebart International Corporation strives to provide a comfortable, productive, legal, and ethical work environment. To this end, we want you to bring any problems, concerns, or grievances you have about the workplace to the attention of your manager and, if necessary, to Human Resources or upper-level management. To help manage conflict resolution we have instituted the following problem solving procedure:

If you believe there is inappropriate conduct or activity on the part of the Company, management, its employees, vendors, customers, or any other persons or entities related to the Company, bring your concerns to the attention of your manager at a time and place that will allow the person to properly listen to your concern. Most problems can be resolved informally through dialogue between you and your immediate manager. If you have already brought this matter to the attention of your manager before and do not believe you have received a sufficient response, or if you believe that person is the source of the problem, present your concerns to Human Resources or upper-level management. Describe the problem, those persons involved in the problem, efforts you have made to resolve the problem, and any suggested solution you may have.

5.5 Outside Employment

Outside employment that creates a conflict of interest or that affects the quality or value of your work performance or availability at Ziebart International Corporation is prohibited. The Company recognizes that you may seek additional employment during off hours, but in all cases expects that any outside employment will not affect your attendance, job performance, productivity, work hours, or scheduling. Nor will it otherwise adversely affect your ability to effectively perform your duties or in any way create a conflict of interest. Any outside employment that will conflict with your duties and obligations to the Company should be reported to your manager. Failure to adhere to this policy may result in discipline up to and including termination.

5.6 Pay Raises

Depending on financial health and other Company factors, efforts will be made to give pay raises consistent with Ziebart International Corporation's profitability, job performance, and the consumer price index. The Company may also make individual pay raises based on merit or due to a change of job position.

5.7 Performance Improvement

It is important for each of us to understand how well we are performing our job requirements, as well as knowing what actions we can take to improve and prepare for additional responsibilities. Along with providing on-going feedback, we conduct periodic performance evaluations to enable all employees the opportunity to discuss their career path with their manager.

You must understand that a positive job performance review does not guarantee a pay raise or continued employment. Pay raises and promotions are based on numerous factors, only one of which is job performance.

5.8 Post-Employment References

Ziebart International Corporation's policy is to confirm dates of employment and job title only. With written authorization, the Company will confirm compensation. Forward any requests for employment verification to Human Resources.

5.9 Promotions

It is our policy to promote from within only when the most qualified candidate is available. Promotions are made on an equal opportunity basis according to employee possessing the needed skills, education, experience, and other qualifications that are required for the job.

To match you with the job for which you are best suited and to meet the business needs of Ziebart International Corporation, you may be transferred from your current job. The Company values broad experience in its employees, therefore encouraging them to view all potential new assignments as opportunities to learn and to grow professionally.

5.10 Resignation Policy

Ziebart International Corporation hopes that your employment with the Company will be a mutually rewarding experience; however, the Company acknowledges that varying circumstances can cause you to resign employment. The Company intends to handle any resignation in a professional manner with minimal disruption to the workplace.

Notice

Ziebart International Corporation requests that you provide a minimum of two weeks' notice of your resignation. If you are a manager or above, you are requested to provide a minimum of four weeks' notice. Provide a written resignation letter to your manager.

The Company reserves the right to provide you with pay in lieu of notice in situations where job or business needs warrant.

Final Pay

The Company will pay separated employees in accordance with applicable laws and other sections of this handbook.

Notify the Company if your address changes during the calendar year in which resignation occurs to ensure tax information is sent to the correct address.

Return of Property

Return all Company property at the time of separation, including cellphones, computers, and keys. Failure to return some items may result in deductions from your final paycheck where state law allows.

5.11 Standards of Conduct

Ziebart International Corporation wishes to create a work environment that promotes job satisfaction, respect, responsibility, integrity, and value for all our employees, clients, customers, and other stakeholders. We all share in the responsibility of improving the quality of our work environment. By deciding to work here, you agree to follow our rules.

While it is impossible to list everything that could be considered misconduct in the workplace, what is outlined here is a list of common-sense infractions that could result in discipline, up to and including immediate termination of employment. This policy is not intended to limit our right to discipline or discharge employees for any reason permitted by law.

Examples of inappropriate conduct include:

- Violation of the policies and procedures set forth in this handbook.
- Possessing, using, distributing, selling, or negotiating the sale of illegal drugs or other controlled substances.
- Being under the influence of alcohol during working hours on Ziebart International Corporation property (including in company vehicles), or on company business.
- Inaccurate reporting of the hours worked by you or any other employee.
- Providing knowingly inaccurate, incomplete, or misleading information when speaking on behalf of the Company or in the preparation of any employment-related documents including, but not limited to, job applications, personnel files, employment review documents, intra-company communications, or expense records.
- Taking or destroying company property.
- Theft of company or customer property; theft of someone's personal property.
- Use or threatened use of company or personal property as a dangerous weapon.
- Unauthorized use of Electronics Communication Policy including unauthorized use of phones, mail systems or other employer-owned equipment.
- Possession of potentially hazardous or dangerous property (where not permitted) such as firearms, weapons, chemicals, etc., without prior authorization.
- Fighting with, or harassment of (as defined in our EEO policy), any fellow employee, vendor, or customer.

- Disclosure of Company trade secrets and proprietary and confidential commercially sensitive information (i.e., financial or sales records/reports, marketing or business strategies/plans, product development information, customer lists, patents, trademarks, etc.) of the Company or its customers, contractors, suppliers, or vendors.
- Refusal or failure to follow directions or to perform a requested or required job task.
- Refusal or failure to follow safety rules and procedures.
- Posting or removal of notices, signs, or writing in any form on bulletin boards on company property at any time without specific authority of management.
- Excessive tardiness or absences.
- Smoking in nondesignated areas.
- Working unauthorized overtime or performing work not covered by a work order/not known by management.
- Solicitation of fellow employees on Company premises during working hours.
- Failure to dress according to Ziebart International Corporation's policy.
- Use of obscene or harassing (as defined by our EEO policy) language in the workplace.
- Engaging in outside employment that interferes with your ability to perform your job at Ziebart International Corporation.
- Gambling on Company premises.
- Lending keys or keycards to Company property to unauthorized persons.
- Leaving the office during work hours without permission.
- Sleeping or loafing on duty.
- Any other act or omission that management determines to be unreasonable under the circumstances where the act or omission could reasonably have caused or did cause injury to Ziebart, its employees or any other person.

Nothing in this policy is intended to limit your rights under the National Labor Relations Act, or to modify the at-will employment status where at-will is not prohibited by state law.

5.12 Transfers

The Company may transfer your employment from one position to another with or without notice, whenever the candidate's qualifications and all other conditions affecting the organization permit or upon request by you and with management approval.

5.13 Workforce Reductions (Layoffs)

If necessary, based upon business needs, management may decide to implement a reduction in force (RIF). We acknowledge that RIFs can be a trying experience for all involved, and the Company will make its best effort to make sound business decisions while acknowledging the needs of its workforce.

6.0 General Policies

6.1 Access to Personnel and Medical Records Files

Ziebart International Corporation maintains separate medical records files and personnel files for all employees. Files containing medical records are stored separate and apart from any business-related records in a safe, locked, inaccessible location. The medical file is the repository for sensitive and confidential information related to an individual's health, health benefits, health-related leave and/or accommodations, and benefits selections and coverage. Medical records are kept confidential in compliance with applicable laws and access is on a "need-to-know" basis only.

Supervisors and others in management may have access to your personnel file for possible employment-related decisions. If you wish to review your personnel or medical records file, you must give the Company reasonable notice. Inspection must occur in the presence of Human Resources.

All requests by an outside party for information contained in your personnel file will be directed to the Human Resources Department, which is the only department authorized to give out such information.

6.2 Authorization for Use of Personal Vehicle

All employees required to operate a motor vehicle as part of their employment duties must maintain a valid driver's license, acceptable driving record, appropriate insurance coverage, and observe all speed, parking, and traffic rules at all times. You will be responsible for paying all fines imposed as a result of traffic violations committed by you when you are driving on Company business, whether in your own vehicle or a Company-owned vehicle.

Ziebart International Corporation may run a motor vehicle department check to determine your driving record. It is your responsibility to provide a copy of your current driver's license and insurance coverage for your personnel file. Any changes in your driving record, including, but not limited to, driving infractions or changes to your insurance policy, must be reported to Human Resources. If you lose your license and as a result you cannot satisfactorily meet the standards of your job, you may be discharged from your employment.

If you use your personal vehicle in the course and scope of employment, the Company will reimburse you at the current IRS prevailing per-mile rate for all miles driven less than 100 miles on Company business. For longer trips (more than 100 miles) you receive the above mileage reimbursement, or you may rent a vehicle with the permission of your department head.

If you use your personal vehicle in the course and scope of employment, you may not operate such vehicle while:

1. Under the influence of drugs, alcohol, or any other substance that might impair your judgment or ability to drive; or
2. Texting, emailing, or otherwise using a cell phone or other handheld device without utilizing a hands-free device.

Insurance

If you are involved in an accident, theft, etc. when driving your own vehicle on Company business, your personal insurance policy will be utilized first for theft, collision or liability, and the Company's insurance second.

The Company will reimburse you the lesser of your insurance deductible or $500. If you are judged by the law to be at fault in an accident, the Company may, at its sole discretion, refuse to make this reimbursement.

You will be required to submit copies of the police accident report and the insurance claim to the Treasurer in order to be reimbursed as described above.

6.3 Computer Security and Copying of Software

Software programs purchased and provided by Ziebart International Corporation are to be used only for creating, researching, and processing materials for Ziebart International Corporation use. By using Ziebart International Corporation hardware, software, and networking systems you assume personal responsibility for their use and agree to comply with this policy and other applicable Company policies, as well as city, state, and federal laws and regulations.

All software acquired for or on behalf of the Company or developed by Ziebart International Corporation employee or contract personnel on behalf of the Company, is and will be deemed Ziebart International Corporation property. It is the policy of the Company to respect all computer software rights and to adhere to the terms of all software licenses to which the Company is a party. The Vice President of Information Systems is responsible for enforcing these guidelines.

You may not illegally duplicate any licensed software or related documentation. Unauthorized duplication of software may subject you and/or the Company to both civil and criminal penalties under the United States Copyright Act. To purchase software, obtain your manager's approval. All software acquired by Ziebart International Corporation must be purchased through, the I.T. Department.

You may not duplicate, copy, or give software to any outsiders including clients, contractors, customers, and others. You may use software on local area networks or on multiple machines only in accordance with applicable license agreements entered into by Ziebart International Corporation.

6.4 Driving Record

All employees required to operate a motor vehicle as part of their employment duties at Ziebart must maintain a valid driver's license and acceptable driving record. The Company may run a motor vehicle department check to determine your driving record. It is your responsibility to provide a copy of your current driver's license for your personnel file. Any changes in your driving record, including but not limited to driving infractions, must be reported to the Company.

State law requires all motorists to carry auto liability insurance. It is against the law to drive without insurance. If you use your own vehicle as a part of your employment duties, you must provide management with a current proof of insurance statement or card. New proof of insurance is required every time your policy expires and renews.

6.5 Employer Sponsored Social Events

Ziebart International Corporation holds periodic social events for employees. Be advised that your attendance at these events is voluntary and does not constitute part of your work-related duties. Any exceptions to this policy must be in writing and signed by a manager prior to the event.

Alcoholic beverages may be available at these events. If you choose to drink alcoholic beverages, you must do so in a responsible manner. Do not drink and drive. Instead, please call a taxi or appoint a designated driver.

Unlawful use of telecommunications equipment

The use of Ziebart's telecommunications systems to make or send fraudulent, unlawful, or abusive calls or messages is prohibited. Employees must report any threatening, intimidating, or harassing telephone calls to their manager or the Human Resource Department. Any employee identified as the initiator of fraudulent, unlawful, or abusive calls or messages is subject to disciplinary action up to termination, and possible criminal prosecution. In instances where harassing calls are identified as originating from outside the company's premises, the telephone company or appropriate telecommunications provider is notified.

The Company owns and remains entitled to all cell phone/mobile device and accessories issued to employee, including all passwords controlling access to them. You may not change those passwords except with permission. To the extent permitted by applicable law, employees will be held responsible for lost or stolen cell phones, etc., belonging to the company. Employees must immediately report lost or stolen cell phones, and/or other Company property. At the time of employment termination, all such equipment and passwords must be returned to the Company in operable condition.

Violation of this policy may result in discipline, up to and including termination of employment.

6.6 Incentive Programs

Employee Referral Program

Ziebart International Corporation is always looking for good people, and you can help. Research has shown, and our own experience supports, that new hires who come into a company through employee referrals are excellent contributors, stay with the company longer and are more cost-effective recruits.

That is where you come in! If you know someone who would be a good addition to Ziebart, you may be awarded a referral bonus of $200.00 (net) if you refer a candidate and he or she is hired.

Employees must refer candidates to Human Resources through the employee referral program by submitting the candidate referral form and a resume or employment application. The candidate referral form can be found on ADP's Home page under Forms.

All current openings can be found on www.ziebart.com.

Program Rules

- All Ziebart employees, except those at director level and above, Human Resources personnel, and managers with hiring authority over the referred candidates, are eligible for the referral award.
 - The referral date cannot be earlier than the date the job opening is posted. The hiring of a referred employee must occur within 180 days (six months) of the initial referral date.
 - The referral must represent the candidate's first contact with Ziebart. Temporary, summer, contract, and former employees of Ziebart are not eligible candidates for referral awards.
 - To be eligible for an award, an employee must submit a referral to Human Resources with a candidate referral form and a resume or employment application.
 - The referring employee must agree to have his or her name used when the company contacts the candidate.
 - The first employee to refer a candidate will be the only referring employee eligible for the referral reward.
 - There is no cap on the number of referrals an employee can make. All rewards will be paid accordingly.
 - Only candidates who meet the essential qualifications for the position will be considered.
 - The referring employee must be employed by Ziebart during the hired candidate's first 90 days of employment to receive payment of the referral award.
 - Any disputes or interpretations of this employee referral program will be handled through Human Resources and any decisions will be final and at the discretion of Human Resources.
 - All referral reward payments will be paid within 90 days after the referred employee's first day of employment at Ziebart.
- All candidates will be evaluated for employment consistent with company policies and procedures.
 - All information regarding the hiring decision will remain strictly confidential.

6.7 Nonsolicitation/Nondistribution Policy

To avoid disruption of business operations or disturbance of Ziebart International Corporation, visitors, and others, Ziebart International Corporation has implemented a Nonsolicitation/Nondistribution Policy. For purposes of this policy, "solicitation" includes, but is not limited to, selling items or services, requesting contributions, and soliciting or seeking to obtain membership in or support for any organization. Solicitation performed through verbal, written, or electronic means is covered by the Nonsolicitation/Nondistribution Policy.

You are prohibited from soliciting other employees during your assigned working time. For this purpose, working time means time during which either you or the employee who are the object of the solicitation are expected to be actively engaged with assigned work. You may conduct solicitations during your lunch period, coffee breaks, or other authorized nonworking time, so long as you do so when the other employees are also on nonworking time.

To avoid inappropriate litter, clutter, and safety risks, you may not distribute literature or other items that are not work related in working areas at any time. Working areas do not include break/rest areas, lunchrooms, or parking lots. Electronic distribution of materials is prohibited during work time. Literature that violates the company's equal employment opportunity (EEO) and nonharassment policies (including threats of violence), or is knowingly and recklessly false, is never permitted. Non-employees are not permitted to distribute materials on company premises at any time.

This policy is not intended to restrict the statutory rights of employees, including the right to discuss terms and conditions of employment.

Violations of this policy should be reported to Human Resources.

6.8 Notification Boards

Ziebart International Corporation maintains an official notifications board located in a common area of the store are for providing employees with official company notices, including wage and hour laws, changes in policies, and other employment-related notices. At times, the Company may also post information of general interest to employees on the board. You are responsible for being informed about this material by periodically reviewing the board. Only authorized personnel may add and remove notices from the notifications board.

6.9 Off-Duty Use of Employer Property or Premises

You may not use Ziebart International Corporation property for personal use during working time. You are responsible for returning Ziebart International Corporations property in good condition and repairing or replacing any property damaged as the result of personal use or as the result of negligence. This includes use of copy machines, computers, Company products, or office supplies for personal use without prior authorization.

It is Ziebart International Corporations policy to control off-duty and nonworking hour use of Company facilities either for business or personal reasons. You are prohibited from using Company facilities during off-duty or nonworking hours without the written consent of your manager. If you use Ziebart International Corporations facilities during your off-duty hours or Ziebart International Corporations off-hours, you may be required to sign a log-in and log-out sheet maintained by the Company or building manager.

6.10 Payroll Advances and Loans

Ziebart International Corporation discourages employee requests for payroll advances or loans. If you need an advance or loan against your paycheck for emergency reasons, consult with Human Resources.

Before the Company will agree to advance wages or loan money, you will be required to fill out a promissory note acknowledging the advance or loan and setting forth the terms for repayment, including any interest. You will also be required to authorize in writing deductions for repayment directly from future paychecks and to pay the full amount of the advance or loan upon termination of employment as permitted by applicable law.

6.11 Personal Appearance

Your personal appearance reflects on the reputation, integrity, and public image of Ziebart International Corporation. All employees are required to report to work neatly groomed and dressed. You are expected to maintain personal hygiene habits that are generally accepted in the community, including clean clothing, good grooming and personal hygiene, and appropriate attire for the workplace and the work being performed. This includes wearing uniforms and protective safety clothing and equipment.

Fragrant products, including but not limited to perfumes, colognes, and scented body lotions or hair products, should be used in moderation out of concern for others with sensitivities or allergies.

Ziebart Apparel

Approved attires consist of the following;

Ziebart logo shirt – long or short sleeve
Black pants/jeans
Work boots/shoes
Ziebart jacket
Ziebart hat

Apparel will be provided to all employees at time of hire:

Five (5) Ziebart logo shirts
One (1) jacket
One (1) hat

These items are paid for by the Company but owned by the employee.

- Replacement shirts will be purchased as needed by the Company and must be approved by their supervisor.
- Employees are responsible for laundering and maintaining their own apparel. If the supervisor feels that an employee's apparel needs laundering, repair, or replacement, they will direct the employee to take the appropriate action.

If the clothes worn to work do not comply with the policy, the employee will be:

- Coached
- Sent home to change, and/or
- Subject to disciplinary action

6.12 Personal Cell Phone/Mobile Device Use

While Ziebart International Corporation permits employees to bring personal cell phones and other mobile devices (i.e., smart phones, tablets, laptops) into the workplace, you must not allow the use of such devices to interfere with your job duties or impact workplace safety and health.

Use of personal cell phones and mobile devices at work can be distracting and disruptive and cause a loss of productivity. Thus, you should primarily use such personal devices during nonworking time, such as breaks and meal periods. During this time, use devices in a manner that is courteous to those around you. Outside of nonworking time, use of such devices should be minimal and limited to emergency use only. If you have a device that has a camera and/or audio/video recording capability, you are restricted from using those functions on company property unless authorized in advance by management or when they are used in a manner consistent with your right to engage in concerted activity under Section 7 of the National Labor Relations Act (NLRA).

You are expected to comply with Ziebart International Corporation policies regarding the protection of confidential and proprietary information when using personal devices.

While operating a vehicle on work time, the Company requires that the driver's personal cell phone/mobile device be turned off. If you need to make or receive a phone call while driving, pull off the road to a safe location unless you have the correct hands-free equipment for the device that is in compliance with applicable state laws.

You may not connect your personal device to Ziebart International Corporation network or to Ziebart International Corporations equipment (computers, printers, etc.).

Nothing in this policy is intended to prevent employees from engaging in protected concerted activity under the NLRA.

You will be subject to disciplinary action up to and including termination of employment for violation of this policy.

6.13 Personal Data Changes

It is your obligation to provide Ziebart International Corporation with your current contact information, including current mailing address, telephone number, beneficiary, military status, or whom to contact in case of an emergency. Inform Ziebart International Corporation of any changes to your marital, dependent or tax withholding status. Failure to do so may result in loss of benefits or delayed receipt of W-2 and other mailings. To make changes to this information, contact Human Resources.

6.14 Security

All employees are responsible for helping to make Ziebart International Corporation a secure work environment. Upon leaving work, lock all desks, and doors protecting valuable or sensitive material in your work area and report any lost or stolen keys, passes, or similar devices to your Manager immediately. Refrain from discussing specifics regarding Ziebart International Corporation security systems, alarms, passwords, etc. with those outside of the Company.

Immediately advise your manager of any known or potential security risks and/or suspicious conduct of employees, customers, or guests of Ziebart International Corporation. Safety and security are the responsibility of all employees, and we rely on you to help us keep our premises secure.

6.15 Social Media

At Ziebart International Corporation, we recognize the Internet provides unique opportunities to participate in interactive discussions and share information using a wide variety of social media. However, use of social media also presents certain risks and carries with it certain responsibilities. To minimize risks to the Company, you are expected to follow our guidelines for appropriate use of social media.

This policy applies to all employees who work for Ziebart International Corporation, or one of its subsidiary companies.

Guidelines

For purposes of this policy, social media includes all means of communicating or posting information or content of any sort on the Internet, including to your own or someone else's web log or blog, journal or diary, personal website, social networking or affinity website, web bulletin board or a chat room, whether associated or affiliated with the company, as well as any other form of electronic communication.

Ziebart International Corporation's principles, guidelines, and policies apply to online activities just as they apply to other areas of work. Ultimately, you are solely responsible for what you communicate in social media. You may be personally responsible for any litigation that may arise should you make unlawful defamatory, slanderous, or libelous statements against any customer, manager, owner, or employee of Ziebart International Corporation.

Know and Follow the Rules

Ensure your postings are consistent with these guidelines. Postings that include unlawful discriminatory remarks, harassment, and threats of violence or other unlawful conduct will not be tolerated and may subject you to disciplinary action up to and including termination.

Be Respectful

Ziebart International Corporation cannot force or mandate respectful and courteous activity by employees on social media during nonworking time. If you decide to post complaints or criticism, avoid using statements, photographs, video, or audio that reasonably could be viewed as unlawful, slanderous, threatening, or that might constitute unlawful harassment. Examples of such conduct might include defamatory or slanderous posts meant to harm someone's reputation or posts that could contribute to a hostile work environment on the basis of race, sex, disability, age, national origin, religion, veteran status, or any other status or class protected by law or company policy. Your personal posts and social media activity should not reflect upon or refer to Ziebart International Corporation.

Maintain Accuracy and Confidentiality

When posting information:

- Maintain the confidentiality of trade secrets, intellectual property, and confidential commercially sensitive information (i.e., financial or sales records/reports, marketing or business strategies/plans, product development, customer lists, patents, trademarks, etc.) related to Ziebart International Corporation.
- Do not create a link from your personal blog, website, or other social networking site to a company website that identifies you as speaking on behalf of Ziebart International Corporation.
- Never represent yourself as a spokesperson for the company. If the company is a subject of the content you are creating, do not represent yourself as speaking on behalf of the company. Make it clear in your social media activity that you are speaking on your own behalf.
- Respect copyright, trademark, third-party rights, and similar laws and use such protected information in compliance with applicable legal standards.

Using Social Media at Work

Refrain from using social media while on your work time or on work equipment, unless it is work related as authorized by your manager or consistent with policies that cover equipment owned by Ziebart International Corporation. Do not use Ziebart International Corporation email addresses to register on social networks, blogs or other online tools utilized for personal use.

Media Contacts

If you are not authorized to speak on behalf of Ziebart International Corporation, do not speak to the media on behalf of the company. Direct all media inquiries for official company responses to the Marketing Department.

Retaliation and Your Rights

Retaliation or any other negative action is prohibited against anyone who, based on a reasonable belief, reports a possible deviation from this policy or cooperates in an investigation. Those who retaliate against others for reporting a possible deviation from this policy or for cooperating in an investigation will be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including termination.

Nothing in this policy is designed to interfere with, restrain, or prevent employees from communications regarding wages, hours, or other terms and conditions of employment, or to restrain employees in exercising any other right protected by law. All employees have the right to engage in or refrain from such activities.

6.16 Suggestion Policy

At Ziebart International Corporation, we welcome suggestions for continued improvement and welcome your ideas for better ways to do your job, produce or sell the products or services of our company, or meet customer and client needs. Discuss your ideas with your Manager or an Officer or Director of the Company.

We also encourage you to offer any suggestions derived from seminars, magazines, or other outside sources of information you believe would add value to Ziebart International Corporation.

Understand that any suggestions, innovations, inventions, or other matter created by you on work time or with Ziebart International Corporations tools or property are considered to be the property of the Ziebart International Corporation.

6.17 Telephone Use

Ziebart International Corporation's phones are principally for work-related communications. Unless there is an emergency, limit telephone calls to business purposes only. Limit personal use of Ziebart International Corporation's telephones to brief communications during rest periods where possible. Casual conversation with friends and relatives during working hours is strongly discouraged. Telephone use is subject to the Use of Company Technology Policy.

Personal calls that are excessive in number or duration can subject an employee to discipline by the Company.

6.18 Third Party Disclosures

From time to time, Ziebart International Corporation may become involved in news stories or potential or actual legal proceedings of various kinds. When that happens, lawyers, former employees, newspapers, law enforcement agencies, and other outside persons may contact our employee to obtain information about the incident or the actual or potential lawsuit.

If you receive such a contact, you should not speak on behalf of Ziebart International Corporation and should refer any call requesting the position of the Company to the Marketing Department. If you have any questions about this policy or are not certain what to do when such a contact is made, contact VP, Marketing.

6.19 Use of Company Technology

This policy is intended to provide Ziebart International Corporation employees with the guidelines associated with the use of the Company information technology (IT) resources and communications systems.

This policy governs the use of all IT resources and communications systems owned by or available at Ziebart International Corporation, and all use of such resources and systems when accessed using your own devices, including but not limited to:

- Email systems and accounts.
- Internet and intranet access.
- Telephones and voicemail systems, including wired and mobile phones, smartphones, and pagers.
- Printers, photocopiers, and scanners.
- Fax machines, e-fax systems, and modems.
- All other associated computer, network, and communications systems, hardware, peripherals, and software, including network key fobs and other devices.
- Closed-circuit television (CCTV) and all other physical security systems and devices, including access key cards and fobs.

General Provisions

Ziebart International Corporation IT resources and communications systems are to be used for business purposes only unless otherwise permitted under applicable law.

All content maintained in Ziebart International Corporation IT resources and communications systems are the property of the Company. Therefore, employees should have no expectation of privacy in any message, file, data, document, facsimile, telephone conversation, social media post, conversation, or any other kind or form of information or communication transmitted to, received, or printed from, or stored or recorded on Ziebart International Corporation electronic information and communications systems.

The Company reserves the right to monitor, intercept, and/or review all data transmitted, received, or downloaded over Ziebart International Corporation IT resources and communications systems in accordance with applicable law. Any individual who is given access to the system is hereby given notice that the Company will exercise this right periodically, without prior notice and without prior consent.

The interests of Ziebart International Corporation in monitoring and intercepting data include, but are not limited to: protection of Ziebart International Corporation trade secrets, proprietary information, and similar confidential commercially-sensitive information (i.e. financial or sales records/reports, marketing or business strategies/plans, product development, customer lists, patents, trademarks, etc.); managing the use of the computer system; and/or assisting employees in the management of electronic data during periods of absence.

You should not interpret the use of password protection as creating a right or expectation of privacy, nor should you have a right or expectation of privacy regarding the receipt, transmission, or storage of data on Ziebart International Corporation IT resources and communications systems.

Do not use Ziebart International Corporation IT resources and communications systems for any matter that you would like to be kept private or confidential.

Violations

If you violate this policy, you will be subject to corrective action, up to and including termination of employment. If necessary, Ziebart International Corporation will also advise law enforcement officials of any illegal conduct.

6.20 Workplace Privacy and Right to Inspect

The Company respects the right of each employee to keep personal items in their workstation, as long as the items are appropriate and do not interfere with anyone's job duties.

However, when it is necessary for the Company to investigate allegations of fraud, theft, harassment, substance abuse, or other alleged wrongdoing, the Company has the right to inspect all company property. Company property remains under the control of the Company and is subject to inspection at any time, without notice to any employee, and without their presence. Company property includes but is not limited to lockers, phones, computers, tablets, desks, workplace areas, vehicles, machinery and/or other items and containers in connection with the investigation. You should have no expectation of privacy in any of these areas. We assume no responsibility for the loss of, or damage to, your property maintained on company premises including that kept in lockers and desks.

Company policy requires that all employees cooperate in investigations.

7.0 Benefits

7.1 401(k) Plan

The Company has a 401(k) plan to permit you to make voluntary contributions. The Company provides for employee pre-tax deferral contributions and after-tax Roth contributions.

Eligibility

You may participate in the plan upon hire, as long as you are 21 years of age. You will enter the plan on the first day of the month coinciding with or following the date on which you meet the eligibility requirement.

If you are eligible for a distribution from a qualified plan with a previous employer, you may "roll" your distribution into the Ziebart 401(k) plan at any time upon being employed.

Employer Match

The Company may, in its sole discretion, make a Matching Contribution on your behalf if you make a "Matched Employee Contribution" during the Plan Year. A "Matched Employee Contribution" is any Elective Deferral Contribution that you may make.

If you make a "Matched Employee Contribution" and you have completed at least 1,000 hours of service during the Plan Year and are employed by the Company on the last day of the Plan Year the Company may contribute to your Matching Contribution Account in an amount and allocation formula as determined by the Company at its sole discretion.

Investments

Participants Self Direction

In General. The Plan Administrator allows you to direct the investment of all of your Accounts. The Plan Administrator may also permit the Trustee to establish self-directed brokerage accounts on your behalf. The Plan Administrator may establish uniform guidelines and procedures relating to Participant self-direction.

Investment Elections. You may direct the percentage of your Accounts to be invested in one or more of the available investment funds. Your elections will be subject to such rules and limitations as the Plan Administrator may prescribe. After your death, your beneficiary may make investment elections as if the beneficiary were the Participant. However, the Plan Administrator may restrict investment transfers to the extent required to comply with applicable law.

Investment Decisions. The Plan is intended to constitute a plan described in section 404(c) of ERISA. This means that Plan fiduciaries may be relieved of liability for any of your losses that are the result of your investment elections.

Loans

If you are an active employee you may apply for a loan from the Plan. Loans will only be made to persons who the Plan Administrator determines have the ability to repay the loan. The maximum amount of your loan is the lesser of:

(1) $50,000 minus the highest outstanding balance of loans in the past 12 months, or

(2) one-half the present value of your vested Account balance.

Loans must be repaid over a period not extending beyond five years from the date of the loan, unless such loan is used to acquire a dwelling unit that, within a reasonable time (determined at the time the loan is made), will be used as your principal residence. The maximum loan term for a principal residence loan is 15 Years.

You must repay a loan in accordance with the repayment schedule, or you may make a full or partial prepayment. You may refinance your loan if it meets the requirements for refinancing under IRS regulations. The loan will become payable in full on your termination of employment. The maximum number of loans outstanding at any one time is one. The minimum loan amount is $1000.00. Payments will be made through payroll deduction from each regular paycheck.

Loan fees may be charged against the Account of the Participant to whom the loan is granted, and the Plan Administrator may adopt any administrative rules or procedures that it deems necessary or appropriate with respect to the granting and administering of loans. Please contact the Plan Administrator if you would like more information regarding taking a loan from the Plan.

This benefit, as well as other benefits, may be canceled or changed at the discretion of the Company, unless otherwise required by law.

7.2 Bereavement Leave

Ziebart International Corporation recognizes the importance of taking leave when there is a death in the family. The Company will provide bereavement leave for all employees for their immediate family members and fellow employees or retirees of the Company.

Paid bereavement leave will be granted according to the following schedule:

- Full-time employees are allowed up to four days off from regularly scheduled duty with regular pay in the event of the death of the employee's spouse, child, stepchild, parent, stepparent, father-in-law, mother-in-law, son-in-law, daughter-in-law, brother, sister, stepbrother, stepsister, grandparent, grandchild, or an adult who stood in loco parentis to the employee during childhood.
- Full-time employees are allowed three days off from regular scheduled duty with regular pay in the event of death of the employee's brother-in-law, sister-in-law, aunt, uncle, or spouse's grandparent.
- Part-time employees are allowed up to four consecutive days off (four hours per day) from regularly scheduled duty with regular pay in the event of the death of the employee's spouse, child, stepchild, parent, stepparent, father-in-law, mother-in-law, son-in-law, daughter-in-law, brother, sister, stepbrother, stepsister, grandparent, grandchild, or an adult who stood in loco parentis to the employee during childhood.
- Part-time employees are allowed three days off (four hours per day) from regular scheduled duty with regular pay in the event of death of the employee's brother-in-law, sister-in-law, aunt, uncle, or spouse's grandparent.
- All employees are allowed up to four hours of bereavement leave to attend the funeral of a fellow regular employee or retiree of the company, provided such absence from duty will not interfere with normal operations of the company.

The Company may require documentation supporting your need for bereavement leave.

Additional Time Off

The Company understands the deep impact that death can have on an individual or a family, therefore additional non-paid time off may be granted. The employee may make arrangements with his or her manager for an additional four unpaid days off in the instance of the death of an immediate family member. Additional unpaid time off may also be granted depending on circumstances such as distance, the individual's responsibility for the funeral arrangements, and the employee's responsibility for taking care of the estate of the deceased. You may use accrued but unused Paid Time Off if additional time is needed.

Individual employee circumstances may be discussed with the employee's manager and Human Resources to determine whether additional considerations are needed. It is the company's intention to support employees during their times of grief and bereavement.

7.3 COBRA

The Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act (COBRA) provides the opportunity for eligible Ziebart International Corporations employees and their beneficiaries to continue health insurance coverage under the Company health plan when a "qualifying event" could result in the loss of eligibility. Qualifying events include resignation, termination of employment, death of an employee, reduction in hours, a leave of absence, divorce or legal separation, entitlement to Medicare, or where a dependent child no longer meets eligibility requirements.

Contact Human Resources to learn more about your COBRA rights.

7.4 Continuing Education and Tuition Assistance

We believe in the continuing education of our employees. Ziebart International Corporation encourages employees to upgrade their educational credentials in areas important to their job performance and to the Company's overall vision.

ELIGIBILITY RULES

To participate in the Company Education Assistance Program, you must be an active employee and have completed at least six months of employment with the company.

Courses must enhance employee skills in their current or future work related areas. Courses must also be approved in advance by the Human Resources Department, the employee's supervisor and department head and be completed at a recognized or approved institution.

REIMBURSEMENTS

All requests for educational reimbursement must be submitted on the "Employee Company Educational Assistance Program" reimbursement form and include all receipts and the official transcript, grades or photo copy of the final program certificate.

Reimbursement for approved fees and costs will be made after successful completion of the program as follows:

For pass / fail courses the employee must submit a reimbursement request for 100% of the expenses after course completion.

For completion of graded courses the employee must submit a reimbursement request based on the following schedule:

Grade Reimbursement %

A = 100%

B = 90%

C (except graduate level) = 80%

Maximum Benefit per Calendar Year:

Employee Full-Time/Part-Time

Graduate Courses $5,250/$2,625

Undergraduate Courses $3,000/$1,500

G.E.D. $500/$250

Reimbursements may include expenses for enrollment fees, tuition costs, computer related fees, laboratory fees, and books. Reimbursements will not include expenses for travel, miscellaneous supplies, or the employee's time.

If the employee fails the course for any reason, they will not be reimbursed for the related expenses.

Employer provided Educational Assistance will not be included in your W-2 Box 1 wages. You are encouraged to visit Publication 970 \(2020\), Tax Benefits for Education | Internal Revenue Service \(irs.gov\) for more information.

Since there are requirements for pre-approval, successful completion, and other details, please contact Human Resources for more information before enrolling.

7.5 Crime Victim and Witness Leave

Ziebart International Corporation will provide eligible employees time off from work to respond to a subpoena or request by the prosecuting attorney for the purposes of giving testimony.

Eligibility

To be eligible for time off under this policy, you must be a victim of crime, a victim representative or witness.

A victim is an individual who has suffered direct or threatened physical, financial, or emotional harm as a result of the commission of a crime.

A victim representative is an individual who is:

- A guardian or custodian of a child of a deceased victim if the child is less than 18 years of age.
- A parent, guardian, or custodian of a victim of assault if the victim is less than 18 years old.
- A person who has been designated to act in place of a victim of assault while the victim is physically or emotionally disabled.

Compensation

Time off granted under this policy will be unpaid; however, exempt employees may be compensated as required by applicable law.

Notice

Upon receiving a subpoena, provide your Manager with reasonable advance notice of the need for leave. If advance notice is not practicable, provide appropriate documentation within a reasonable time after the absence.

Retaliation

The Company will not retaliate against employees who request or take leave in accordance with this policy.

7.6 Dental Insurance

Ziebart provides you and your family the option to participate in a voluntary dental plan.

The employee pays 100% of the elected coverage, which is on a pre-tax basis. This means that you will not have to pay Federal, State or Social Security taxes on the amount of your contribution.

Eligibility

All regular full-time employees who have completed 30 days of employment at Ziebart International Corporation are eligible for the Company dental plan on the first of the following month. Dental plan benefits are described in detail in the Summary Plan Description (SPD).

7.7 Employer-Sponsored Disability Benefits

Ziebart International Corporation offers the following employer-sponsored disability insurance benefits to employees when they miss work due to non-work-related disabilities.

Eligibility

All regular full-time employees who have completed 30 days of employment are eligible for the employer-sponsored Short-Term/Long Term Disability insurance benefits on the first of the following month.

Short-Term Disability Insurance

A Short Term Disability benefit of 60% of weekly earnings will be paid on the 1st day for disabilities due to accidents and after the 8th day for disabilities due to sickness. Benefits are payable for up to 13 weeks. The first $50 of benefit will be administered through our Insurance Company. The insurance company will determine eligibility and will adjudicate all claims.

Long-Term Disability Insurance

Long Term Disability Coverage will be payable after 90 days of a continuous disability as determined by Ziebart International Corporation or its agent. Benefits will be paid at 60% of base salary to a maximum of $6,000 per month. The benefit is payable to age 65.

Additional Information

The terms and conditions for the disability insurance are outlined in the Summary of Plan Benefits. Contact Human Resources for a copy of the plan provisions, required forms, and the additional information about these benefits.

7.8 Exempt Personnel

If you are classified as exempt at the time of your hiring, you are not eligible for overtime pay as otherwise required by federal, state, or local laws. If you have a question regarding whether you are exempt or nonexempt, contact Human Resources for clarification.

7.9 Family and Medical Leave (FMLA)

In accordance with the Family and Medical Leave Act of 1993 (FMLA), Ziebart International Corporation provides up to 12 or 26 weeks of unpaid, job-protected leave in a 12-month period to covered employees in certain circumstances.

Eligibility

To qualify for FMLA leave, you must:

1. Have worked for the Company for at least 12 months, although it need not be consecutive;
2. Worked at least 1,250 hours in the last 12 months; and
3. Be employed at a worksite that has 50 or more employees within 75 miles.

Leave Entitlement

You may take up to 12 weeks of unpaid FMLA leave in a 12-month period for any of the following reasons:

- The birth of a child and in order to care for that child (leave must be completed within one year of the child's birth);
- The placement of a child with you for adoption or foster care and in order to care for the newly placed child (leave must be completed within one year of the child's placement);
- To care for a spouse, child, or parent with a serious health condition;
- To care for your own serious health condition, which makes you unable to perform any of the essential functions of your position; or
- A qualifying exigency of a spouse, child, or parent who is a military member on covered active duty or called to covered active-duty status (or has been notified of an impending call or order to covered active duty).
- For necessary preparation and recovery from surgery related to organ or tissue donation by or for the employee, their spouse, child or parent.

The 12-month period is a 1-year period prior to the leave.

You may take up to 26 weeks of unpaid FMLA leave in a single 12-month period, beginning on the first day that you take FMLA leave to care for a spouse, child, or next of kin who is a covered service member and who has a serious injury or illness related to active duty service.

As used in the policy:

- Spouse means a husband or wife as recognized under state law for the purposes of marriage in the state or other territory or country where the marriage took place.
- Child means a biological, adopted, or foster child, a stepchild, a legal ward, or a child of a person standing in loco parentis, who is either under age 18 or age 18 or older and incapable of self-care because of a mental or physical disability at the time FMLA leave is to commence. A child for the purposes of military exigency or military care leave can be of any age.
- Parent means a biological, adoptive, step, or foster parent or any other individual who stood in loco parentis to you when you were a child.
- Next of kin for the purposes of military care leave is a blood relative other than a spouse, parent, or child in the following order: brothers and sisters, grandparents, aunts, and uncles, and first cousins. If a military service member designates in writing another blood relative as his or her caregiver, that individual will be the only next of kin. In appropriate circumstances, you may be required to provide documentation of next of kin status.
- Serious health condition means an illness, injury, impairment, or physical or mental condition that involves either inpatient care or continuing treatment by a health care provider. Ordinarily, unless complications arise, cosmetic treatments and minor conditions such as the cold, flu, earaches, upset stomach, minor ulcers, headaches (other than migraines), and routine dental problems are examples of conditions that are not serious health conditions under this policy. If you have any questions about the types of conditions that may qualify, contact Human Resources.
- Health care provider means a medical doctor or doctor of osteopathy, physician assistant, podiatrist, dentist, clinical psychologist, optometrist, nurse practitioner, nurse-midwife, clinical social worker, or Christian Science practitioner licensed by the First Church of Christ. Under limited circumstances, a chiropractor or other provider recognized by our group health plan for the purposes of certifying a claim for benefits may also be considered a health care provider.
- Qualifying exigencies for military exigency leave include:
 - Short-notice call-ups/deployments of seven days or less (Note: Leave for this exigency is available for up to seven days beginning the date of call-up notice);
 - Attending official ceremonies, programs, or military events;
 - Special childcare needs created by a military call-up including making alternative childcare arrangements, handling urgent and nonroutine childcare situations, arranging for school transfers, or attending school or daycare meetings;
 - Making financial and legal arrangements;
 - Attending counseling sessions for yourself, the military service member, or the military service members' son or daughter who is under 18 years of age or is 18 or older but incapable of self-care because of a mental or physical disability;
 - Rest and recuperation (Note: Fifteen days of leave is available for this exigency per event);
 - Post-deployment activities such as arrival ceremonies, re-integration briefings, and other official ceremonies sponsored by the military (Note: Leave for these events are available for 90 days following the termination of active-duty status). This type of leave may also be taken to address circumstances arising from the death of a covered military member while on active duty;
 - Parental care when the military family member is needed to care for a parent who is incapable of self-care (such as arranging for alternative care or transfer to a care facility); and
 - Other exigencies that arise that are agreed to by both the Company and you.
- A serious injury/illness incurred by a service member in the line of active duty or that is exacerbated by active duty is any injury or illness that renders the service member unfit to perform the duties of his or her office, grade, rank, or rating.

Notice and Leave Request Process

If the need for leave is foreseeable because of an expected birth/adoption or planned medical treatment, you must give at least 30 days' notice. If 30 days' notice is not possible, give notice as soon as practicable (within one or two business days of learning of your need for leave).

In addition, if you are seeking intermittent or reduced schedule leave that is foreseeable due to planned medical treatment or a series of treatments for yourself, a family member, or covered service member, you must consult with the Company first regarding the dates of this treatment to work out a schedule that best suits your needs or the needs of the covered military member, if applicable, and the Company. If the need for leave is unforeseeable, provide notice as soon as possible. Normal call-in procedures apply to all absences from work, including those for which leave under this policy may be requested.

Certification of Need for Leave

If you are requesting leave because of your own or a covered relative's serious health condition, you and the relevant health care provider must supply appropriate medical certification. You may obtain Medical Certification forms from Human Resources. When you request leave, the Company will notify you of the requirement for medical certification and when it is due (at least 15 days after you request leave). If you provide at least 30 days' notice of medical leave, you should also provide the medical certification before leave begins. Failure to provide requested medical certification in a timely manner may result in denial of FMLA-covered leave until it is provided.

The Company also reserves the right to require certification from a covered military member's health care provider if you are requesting military caregiver leave and certification in connection with military exigency leave.

Call-In Procedures

In all instances of absence, the call-in procedures and standards established for giving notice of absence from work must be followed.

Leave Increments - Intermittent Leave

If medically necessary, FMLA leave for a serious health condition may be taken intermittently (in separate blocks of time due to a serious health condition) or on a reduced leave schedule (reducing the usual number of hours you work per workweek or workday). FMLA leave may also be taken intermittently or on a reduced leave schedule for a qualifying exigency relating to covered military service.

As FMLA leave is unpaid, the Company will reduce your salary based on the amount of time actually worked. In addition, while you are on an intermittent or reduced schedule leave that is foreseeable due to planned medical treatments, the Company may temporarily transfer you to an available alternative position that better accommodates your leave schedule and has equivalent pay and benefits.

Parental Leave

Leave for the birth or placement of a child can be taken on an intermittent or reduced schedule basis. Parental leave must be completed within 12 months of the birth or placement of the child.

Family Care, Personal Medical, Military Exigency, and Military Care Leave

Leave taken for these reasons may be taken in a block or blocks of time. In addition, if a health care provider deems it necessary or if the nature of a qualifying exigency requires, leave for these reasons can be taken on an intermittent or reduced-schedule basis.

Paid Leave Utilization During FMLA Leave

FMLA leave is unpaid. If you are taking parental, family care, military exigency, and/or military care leave, you must utilize available vacation and PTO days during this leave. If you are taking personal medical leave, you must utilize available vacation and PTO days during this leave. If you are receiving short- or long-term disability or workers' compensation benefits during a personal medical leave, you will not be required to utilize these benefits.

Fitness for Duty Requirements

If you take leave because of your own serious health condition (except if you are taking intermittent leave), you are required, as are all employees returning from other types of medical leave, to provide medical certification that you are fit to resume work. You will not be permitted to resume work until it is provided.

Health Insurance

Your health insurance coverage will be maintained by the Company during leave on the same basis as if you were still working. You must continue to make timely payments of your share of the premiums for such coverage. Failure to pay premiums within 30 days of when they are due may result in a lapse of coverage. If this occurs, you will be notified 15 days before the date coverage lapses that coverage will terminate unless payments are promptly made.

Reinstatement

Upon returning to work at the end of leave, you will generally be placed in your original job or an equivalent job with equivalent pay and benefits. You will not lose any benefits that accrued before leave was taken.

Spouse Aggregation

If you and your spouse are both employed by the Company, the total number of weeks to which you are both entitled in the aggregate because of the birth or placement of a child or to care for a parent with a serious health condition will be limited to 12 weeks per leave year. Similarly, spouses employed by the Company will be limited to a combined total of 26 weeks of leave to care for a military service member. This 26-week leave period will be reduced, however, by the amount of leave taken for other qualifying FMLA events. This type of leave aggregation does not apply to leave needed for your own serious health condition, to care for a spouse or child with a serious health condition, or because of a qualifying exigency.

Failure to Return

If you fail to return to work or fail to make a request for an extension of leave prior to the expiration of the leave, you will be deemed to have voluntarily terminated your employment. The Company is not required to grant requests for open-ended leaves with no reasonable return date under these policies or as disability accommodations.

Alternative Employment

While on leave of absence, you may not work or be gainfully employed either for yourself or others unless express, written permission to perform such outside work has been granted by the Company. If you are on a leave of absence and are found to be working elsewhere without permission, you will be subject to disciplinary action up to and including termination.

Interaction with State and Local Laws

Where state or local family and medical leave laws offer more protections or benefits to employees, the protections or benefits that are more favorable to the employee, as provided by these laws, will apply.

Abuse of Leave

If you are found to have provided a false reason for a leave, you will be subject to disciplinary action up to and including termination.

Designation of Leave

If the Company becomes aware of any qualifying reason for FMLA leave, the Company will designate it as such. An employee may not refuse FMLA designation under this policy.

Retaliation

The Company will not retaliate against employees who request or take leave in accordance with this policy.

7.10 Flexible Spending Account (FSA)

Ziebart International Corporation provides Flexible Spending Account (FSA) benefits for eligible employees. FSAs provide tax-free reimbursement to employees for health care and/or dependent care expenses that are not reimbursed by any other insurance or reimbursement program.

A Health Care FSA provides eligible employees the opportunity to pay for medical expenses on a pretax basis that are not reimbursed by an insurance plan. Both the amount you contribute and the amount you are reimbursed from your Health Care FSA are income tax free.

A Dependent Care FSA provides eligible employees the opportunity to pay for dependent care expenses for a child, disabled spouse, or dependent parent, on a pretax basis. Both the amount you contribute and the amount you are reimbursed from your Dependent Care FSA are income tax free.

All regular full-time employees are eligible for the above FSA benefits.

If eligible, you may elect an annual amount to contribute, which will be divided and deducted from your pay each pay period and may be used to pay for eligible expenses. Annual elections are limited by established plan maximums and are subject to applicable IRS forfeiture and rollover provisions.

Contact Human Resources for a copy of the plan summary and for questions about this benefit.

7.11 Health Insurance

Ziebart provides health insurance coverage to assist you and your family with broad protection against the expenses resulting from preventative care, illness or accidents which may occur. The Company offers group health insurance benefits to all eligible full-time employees who have completed 30 days of employment and their eligible dependents. Health plan benefits are described in detail in the Summary Plan Description (SPD), which may be obtained from Human Resources.

Your group health benefits are paid in part by the Company. The remainder of the costs are paid by you on a pretax basis and are deducted from your paycheck.

Benefits may be canceled or changed at the discretion of the Company, unless otherwise prohibited by law.

If you or a dependent become ineligible for benefits due to a change in work hours or through a life event, or you leave employment with us, you may have the right to continue your health benefits under federal or state law. In such an event, the Company will provide you with information about your rights to continue your benefits coverage.

7.12 Holidays

Ziebart International Corporation offers the following paid holidays each year:

New Year's Day
Memorial Day
Independence Day
Labor Day
Thanksgiving Day
Christmas Day

Full-Time Employees

You will receive holiday pay (8 hours of straight time pay for hourly employees and one day's pay for salaried employees) for each of the above days. However, if you are absent on the scheduled workday before or after the paid holiday, without prior permission from your manager to be absent, you will not receive holiday pay.

Part-Time Employees

Non-exempt part-time employees will receive holiday pay (4 hours of straight time pay) for each holiday, provided that:

- You work at least 8 hours in the week during which the holiday falls.
- You work the working day before and the working day after the paid holiday.

When a holiday falls on a Saturday, it will be observed the preceding Friday. Holidays falling on a Sunday will be observed the following Monday.

On occasion, due to work requirements, you may be asked to work a particular holiday. If this occurs, you will receive a compensation day for the holiday worked.

- Compensation days must be taken within the same pay period that the holiday occurred.
- If the requested compensation day is beyond the above-mentioned time period, a written request must be given to Human Resources from the Store Manager with the requested compensation date.

7.13 Jury Duty Leave

Ziebart International Corporation encourages employees to fulfill their civic duties related to jury duty. If you are summoned for jury duty, notify your manager as soon as possible to make scheduling arrangements.

All fulltime employees are entitled to serve jury duty with pay. Employees will be paid their normal salary or hourly compensation according to whatever their regularly scheduled hours would have been had they not been on jury duty less the amount you receive in jury fees. All fulltime employees are required to turn their pay voucher into Human Resources.

All part-time employees are entitled to serve jury duty with pay. You will receive jury duty pay (4 hours of straight time pay per each day served).

The Company reserves the right to require employees to provide proof of jury duty service to the extent authorized by law.

The Company will not retaliate against employees who request or take leave in accordance with this policy.

Ziebart International Corporation will provide eligible employees time off from work to respond to a subpoena or request by the prosecuting attorney for the purposes of giving testimony.

Eligibility

To be eligible for time off under this policy, you must be a victim of crime or a victim representative.

A victim is an individual who has suffered direct or threatened physical, financial, or emotional harm as a result of the commission of a crime.

A victim representative is an individual who is:

- A guardian or custodian of a child of a deceased victim if the child is less than 18 years of age.
- A parent, guardian, or custodian of a victim of assault if the victim is less than 18 years old.
- A person who has been designated to act in place of a victim of assault while the victim is physically or emotionally disabled.

Compensation

Time off granted under this policy will be unpaid; however, exempt employees may be compensated as required by applicable law.

Notice

Upon receiving a subpoena, provide your Manager with reasonable advance notice of the need for leave. If advance notice is not practicable, provide appropriate documentation within a reasonable time after the absence.

Retaliation

The Company will not retaliate against employees who request or take leave in accordance with this policy.

7.14 Life Insurance

Ziebart International Corporation provides Basic Life and Accidental Death and Dismemberment insurance to all regular full-time employees who have completed 30 days of employment with the company. Life and Accidental Death and Dismemberment insurance can be an extremely important benefit. It provides financial security for your family should you die or become injured. The Company employee benefit plan provides you with an employer-paid term Life and AD&D insurance benefit.

Ziebart International Corporation also provides Voluntary Life Insurance and allows employees an opportunity to purchase additional life insurance protection for themselves, spouse, and children. The program offers term insurance at affordable group rates, with the ease of payroll deduction.

You will be required to notify Human Resources of your intended beneficiary. Refer to the Summary Plan Description (SPD) for details about the benefit.

7.15 Military Leave (USERRA)

Ziebart International Corporation complies with applicable federal and state law regarding military leave and re-employment rights. Unpaid military leave of absence will be granted to members of the uniformed services in accordance with the Uniformed Services Employment and Reemployment Rights Act of 1994 (USERRA; with amendments) and all applicable state law. You must submit documentation of the need for leave to Human Resources. When returning from military leave of absence, you will be reinstated to your previous position or a similar position, in accordance with state and federal law. You must notify your manager of your intent to return to employment based on the requirements of the law. For more information regarding status, compensation, benefits, and reinstatement upon return from military leave, contact Human Resources.

7.16 Nonexempt Personnel

If you are classified as nonexempt at the time of your hiring, you will be eligible for minimum wage and overtime pay in accordance with federal, state, and local laws.

Overtime Pay

Fair Labor Standards Act has set 40 hours as the maximum number of hours worked before Ziebart International Corporation must pay overtime to non-exempt employees. Overtime pay is paid at the rate of time-and-one-half for all time worked in excess of 40 hours for the week.

If you have a question regarding whether you are exempt or nonexempt, contact Human Resources for clarification.

7.17 Employee Stock Ownership Plan

Ziebart's Employee Stock Ownership Plan (ESOP) is an employee benefit program designed to give each eligible employee a form of stock ownership in the Company. Our ESOP is a retirement plan under which Company contributions are used to provide eligible employees with stock in the Company. As contributions are made to the ESOP, they can be made in stock or cash as determined annually by the Company's Board of Directors. Shares of the Company's stock or cash contributions will be credited to accounts set up for employee participants. Over the years, participants will gradually acquire more shares of the Company's stock. The longer you work for the Company the more stock will be credited to your account.

The ESOP is intended to give each eligible employee a share in the beneficial ownership of our Company. Accordingly, as employees, we can help assure the growth of the Company.

The ESOP is provided at no cost to you; the Company pays the full cost.

Eligibility

You become a participant if you are at least 18 years of age, and if you have completed at least 1 year of service.

The Company contributes on your behalf to the plan.

As with your insurance benefits, refer to the Summary Plan Description (SPD) provided by the benefits administrator for specifics or contact the Accounting Department for more information.

7.18 Personal Leave of Absence

Ziebart International Corporation recognizes that you may need time off from work in special circumstances that other leave policies may not address. In such cases, you may request a personal leave of absence.

Eligibility

All regular full-time and part-time employees are eligible to apply for an unpaid personal leave of absence.

Requesting Leave

Requests for unpaid personal leave must be submitted to your Manager and Human Resources in writing at least 15 days in advance where practical. In emergency situations, written notice must be provided as soon as possible. The request should include the reason for the leave as well as the dates you expect to begin and end the leave.

Job performance, absenteeism, and departmental requirements will be taken into consideration before a request is approved. Requests for unpaid personal leave may be denied or granted for any reason and are within the sole discretion of the Company.

You will be required to use all available paid leave balances prior to taking an unpaid personal leave of absence.

Sick leave, PTO, vacation time, seniority, or other benefits will not accrue during an unpaid personal leave of absence. Holidays that occur during an unpaid personal leave of absence will not be paid.

If you are granted a personal leave of absence, reinstatement to your position or any position is not guaranteed.

Your company provided health benefits will be continued at the same level and under the same conditions as prior to the leave, for up to 12 weeks. You are responsible for payment of your portion of the insurance premium while on personal leave.

If you are on a personal leave of absence that exceeds 12 weeks, or you fail to pay your premium in a timely manner, the Company will provide you with information about your rights under COBRA.

Extension of Leave

You are required to return from unpaid personal leave on the originally scheduled return date. If you are unable to return, you must request an extension of the leave in writing at least 15 days in advance where practical of the return date. Leave extensions will be considered on a case-by-case basis. If the Company denies the extension request, you must return to work on the originally scheduled return date or be considered to have voluntarily resigned from your employment.

Return to Work

In advance of your scheduled return date, your manager and Human Resources will arrange for you to resume your previous position, if available. However, the Company's need to fill a position may override the ability to hold a position open until your return. Therefore, we cannot assure our ability to reinstate you to any position after your leave. The Company retains the discretion to determine the similarity of any available positions and your qualifications. If we are unable to reinstate you or you refuse the offer of reinstatement to a different position, your leave status will be changed to a voluntary termination.

Failure to Return from Leave

If you fail to return to work after an unpaid leave of absence, you will be considered to have resigned your employment.

Alternative Employment

While on an unpaid leave of absence, you may not work or be gainfully employed either for yourself or others unless express, written permission to perform such outside work has been granted by Ziebart International Corporation. If you are on a leave of absence and are found to be working elsewhere without permission, you will be subject to disciplinary action up to and including termination.

7.19 Regular Full-Time Personnel

Regular full-time employees are those who are regularly scheduled to work more than 30 hours per week. Unless stated otherwise or specifically permitted by law, all health benefits provided to employees at Ziebart International Corporation are for regular full-time employees only.

7.20 Regular Part-Time Personnel

All employees who work fewer than 30 hours per week are considered part time. Part-time employees are not eligible for company health benefits unless specified otherwise in this handbook, in the benefit plan summaries, or specifically permitted by law.

7.21 Severance Pay

In its discretion, Ziebart International Corporation may provide a severance pay benefit to exemplary employees who leave work for reasons other than involuntary termination or economic downturn. As a general rule, when severance pay is offered, an employee will be provided with one week of severance pay for every year of employment with the Company. To be entitled to severance pay, the employee must have worked at least three years with the Company and be a regular full-time employee at the time of separation.

7.22 Sick Time

Sick Time

Full or Part-Time Employees

Sick time is a benefit provided to you in the event you need to take time off because of your health or the health of a family member. It is not merely additional paid vacation, thus no pay is provided for unused sick leave at the end of employment.

Sick Time accrues at the rate of one hour per every 30 hours worked. You are allowed to accrue sick time to a maximum of 48 hours per year. Sick time in the amount of 80 hours may be carried over from year to year.

The General Manager position is eligible to accrue sick time in the amount of 8 days/64 hours and the amount of 40 hours may be carried over from year to year.

If state, county or municipality law requires a different arrangement, Ziebart International Corporation will comply with state law.

Sick Time may be used for any of the following reasons:

1. An absence due to your mental or physical illness, injury, or health condition, need for medical diagnosis, care, or treatment of a mental or physical illness, injury, or health condition; or preventive medical or health care.
2. An absence for the care of a family member with a mental or physical illness, injury or health condition, a family member who needs medical diagnosis, care, or treatment of a mental or physical illness, injury, or health condition, or a family member who needs preventative medical or health care.
3. An absence due to domestic abuse, sexual assault, or stalking of you or your family member provided the absence is to: seek medical attention related to physical or psychological injury or disability caused by domestic abuse, sexual assault, or stalking; obtain services from a victim services organization; obtain psychological or other counseling; seek relocation due to domestic abuse, sexual assault or stalking; or to take, prepare or participate in any civil or criminal proceeding related to or resulting from domestic abuse, sexual assault, or stalking.
4. An absence due to the closure of the place of business by order of a public official to limit exposure to an infectious agent, biological toxin or hazardous material or other public health emergency.
5. To accommodate your need to care for a family member whose school or place of care has been closed by order of a public official to limit exposure to an infectious agent, biological toxin or hazardous material or other public health emergency.
6. To accommodate the employee's need to care for a family member whose school or place of care has been closed due to inclement weather, loss of power, loss of heating, loss of water, or other unexpected closure.

You are not required to give any specific reason for using your sick time. However, when you plan to use time for scheduled appointments, you must notify your supervisor as far in advance as possible.

Procedure

If you are unable to report for work because of illness or for any other reason, please contact your supervisor immediately. Explain that you will be absent and when you expect to return to work. You must keep your supervisor updated regarding the status of your return at all times. If your supervisor is unavailable when you call, contact Human Resources.

Upon returning to work, you must complete a Personnel Notification of Absence form and submit it to your supervisor.

Supervisors must enter the sick time into the payroll system.

Note:

Regular attendance is crucial to the success of our business. You should be prepared to furnish a doctor's note or similar evidence of inability to work if your absence is greater than three days. Abuse of sick leave is grounds for discipline, up to and including termination.

Extended Leave

If you require three or more days off due to your own health issue or a health issue of a family member you may be eligible for unpaid family and medical leave (FMLA leave). Eligibility for health care benefits continues during FMLA leave. For additional information on FMLA leave, please contact Human Resources.

Questions about the company's sick time policy should be directed to Human Resources.

7.23 Unemployment Compensation Insurance

Unemployment compensation insurance is paid for by Ziebart International Corporation and provides temporary income for employees who have lost their job under certain circumstances. Your eligibility for unemployment compensation will, in part, be determined by the reasons for your separation from the Ziebart International Corporation.

7.24 Vacation

Ziebart International Corporation provides employees with an annual paid vacation each calendar year. Ziebart encourages everyone to take all the vacation time for which they are eligible.

Eligibility

All regular employees with less than one full year of employment begin accruing vacation time on the date the employee is hired (Anniversary Date), however, no paid vacation days will be granted until the sixth month of employment is completed.

- General Managers and Store Managers (full-time exempt employees) will accrue vacation days on a monthly basis at one day per full calendar month of employment, not to exceed ten days. Once the Anniversary Date is reached, the accrual will stop. The employee will then receive the time as allocated below on January 1 of the next year.
- Service Managers and Sales Professionals (full-time non-exempt employees) will accrue vacation time on an hourly accrual basis. The calculation used is each regular hour worked times .0385, not to exceed 80 hours. Once the Anniversary Date is reached, the accrual will stop. The employee will then receive the time as allocated below on January 1 of the next year.

- Direct Labor (full-time/part-time non-exempt employees) will accrue vacation time on an hourly accrual basis. The calculation used is each regular hour worked times .019250, not to exceed 40 hours per year. Once the Anniversary Date is reached, the accrual will stop. The employee will begin to accrue again on January 1 of the next year.

Paid Vacation Time - All employees hired prior to January 1, 2009 (Grandfathered Employees)

The amount of vacation time received each year is based on your length of service. Upon completion of one year of service, vacation time is granted in a lump sum at the beginning of each year according to an accrual schedule determined by the Company up to a maximum annual grant as shown below:

LENGTH OF SERVICE	IF EMPLOYED ON THE
FROM DATE OF HIRE	NEXT JANUARY 1
Hire Date to Anniversary Date	Accrual Amount
1 yr. < 5 yrs.	10 days/80 hours
5 yrs. < than 10 yrs.	15 days/120 hours
10 yrs. < than 20 yrs.	20 days/160 hours
20 yrs. >	25 days/200 hours

Paid Vacation Time for Full-Time Regular General Managers, Store Managers, Service Managers and Sales Professionals (hired after January 1, 2009)

The amount of vacation time received each year is based on your length of service. Upon completion of one year of service, vacation time is granted in a lump sum at the beginning of each year according to an accrual schedule determined by the Company up to a maximum annual grant as shown below:

LENGTH OF SERVICE	IF EMPLOYED ON THE
FROM DATE OF HIRE	NEXT JANUARY 1
Hire Date to Anniversary Date	Accrual Amount
1 yr. < 10 yrs.	10 days/80 hours
10 yrs. >	15 days/120 hours

1. Vacation time is earned in the year prior to the year in which time is actually taken.
2. The vacation year runs from January 1 to December 31.
3. The employee must be on the payroll January 1 in order to receive the earned vacation days accumulated during the prior vacation year.
4. Employees converting to full-time or part-time status will be pro-rated based on the prior year's hours.

Paid Vacation Time for Direct Labor Employees

Vacation time will accrue on an hourly accrual basis. The calculation used is each regular hour worked times .0286, not to exceed 40 hours per year. The vacation year runs from January 1 to December 31.

LENGTH OF SERVICE	IF EMPLOYED ON THE
FROM DATE OF HIRE	NEXT JANUARY 1
Hire Date to Anniversary Date	Accrual Amount
1 yr. <	Accrual/40 hours

Vacation Usage

Ziebart International Corporation encourages you to use your vacation time. You are eligible to begin using vacation time after 90 days of employment. The following rules apply when using vacation time:

1. No payment will be made instead of vacation.
2. Exempt employees must use paid vacation in increments of at least a half day or greater. Non-exempt employees must use paid vacation time in increments of 1 hour or greater.
3. Employees should request preferred vacation times with the exception of the following usage:

- Physical or mental illness, injury, health condition, of the employee or their family member
- Medical diagnosis, care, or treatment of the employee or their family member
- Preventative care of the employee or their family member
- Closure of the employee's primary workplace or of their child's school or place of care by order of a public official due to a public health emergency
- The employee's or their family member's exposure to a communicable disease that would jeopardize the health of others as determined by health authorities or a health care provider

Domestic violence and sexual assault situations:

- Medical care or psychological or other counseling
- Receiving services from a victim services organization
- Relocation
- Obtaining legal services
- Participation in civil or criminal proceedings related to or resulting from the domestic violence or sexual assault

Employees may be required to provide documentation when requesting leave. Employees are allowed 3 days to provide such documentation.

Any employee who has used all of their paid vacation time and desires additional time off without pay, may take time off if approved by the department head.

Request for Vacation Time

You must request vacation time from your manager in writing prior to the planned vacation, using the Personnel Notification of Time Off form. Vacation time requests should be as far in advance as possible, but at least seven days in advance. The Company will generally grant requests for vacation when possible, taking business needs into consideration. When multiple employees request the same time off, their seniority may determine priority in scheduling vacation times.

During a Leave of Absence

Ziebart International Corporation may require you to use any unused vacation time during disability or family medical leave, or any other leave of absence, where permissible under local, state, and federal law.

Carryover

Unused vacation time can be carried over to the following year. As of December 31, unused vacation balances up to five days/40 hours may be carried over; all other unused vacation time beyond five days/40 hours will be forfeited.

Payment of Vacation Time

Nonexempt employees will be paid their regular hourly rate times each hour of earned vacation time. Paid vacation time will not be counted as hours worked for the purposes of calculating overtime pay.

Separation of Employment

Employees with less than one full year of employment;

- Employees employed less than three months at the time of termination will receive no distribution of accrued vacation whether employment is terminated voluntarily or involuntarily.
- Employees that are employed more than three months but less than one year will receive payment from accrued vacation time as used but will receive no distribution of accrued vacation whether employment is terminated voluntarily or involuntarily.

Employees that have been employed for one year (Anniversary Date) or longer will receive payment for unused vacation time on the next scheduled pay date, whether employment is terminated voluntarily or involuntarily. If state law requires a different arrangement, Ziebart International Corporation will comply with state law.

Rehire

If an employee terminates for any reason, having used all earned vacation time or has been paid for any unused vacation time, and is subsequently rehired as a full-time employee, the employee will be ineligible for paid vacation time until the next January 1.

7.25 Vision Care Insurance

Ziebart provides you and your family the option to participate in a voluntary optical plan.

The employee pays 100% of the elected coverage, which is on a pre-tax basis. This means that you will not have to pay Federal, State or Social Security taxes on the amount of your contribution.

Eligibility

All regular full-time employees who have completed 30 days of employment at Ziebart International Corporation are eligible for the Company vision plan on the first of the following month. Optical plan benefits are described in detail in the Summary Plan Description (SPD).

7.26 Voting Leave

If your work schedule prevents you from voting on Election Day, Ziebart International Corporation will allow you a reasonable time off to vote. The time when you can go to vote will be at the discretion of your manager, consistent with applicable legal requirements.

7.27 Workers' Compensation Insurance

Workers' compensation is a no-fault system designed to provide benefits to all employees for work-related injuries. Workers' compensation insurance coverage is paid for by employers and governed by state law. The workers' compensation system provides for coverage of medical treatment and expenses, occupational disability leave, and rehabilitation services, as well as payment for lost wages due to work related injuries. If you are injured on the job while working at Ziebart International Corporation, no matter how slightly, you are to report the incident immediately to your Manager and Human Resources. Consistent with applicable state law, failure to report an injury within a reasonable period of time could jeopardize your claim for benefits.

To receive workers' compensation benefits, notify your Manager and Human Resources immediately of your claim. If your injury is the result of an on-the-job accident, you must fill out an accident report. You will be required to submit a medical release before you can return to work.

8.0 Safety and Loss Prevention

8.1 Business Closure and Emergencies

Ziebart International Corporation recognizes that inclement weather and other emergencies may affect your ability to get to work. In such situations, your safety is paramount.

Company Closure

Examples of emergencies when the Company may close include, but are not limited to, power outage, blizzard conditions, etc.

Notification

In an emergency, the Company will make every effort to notify you of the closing. When the Company is unable to notify you of the closure, use common sense to assess the safety and practicality of the situation. In a regional power outage, for example, the Company is likely to have no power. If there is reported flash flooding in your area, report to work only if you can make it safely.

Partial-Day Closure

If an emergency event such as inclement weather or a power outage occurs, the Company may decide to close mid-day. When the Company closes mid-day, you will be instructed to leave immediately so that the conditions do not further deteriorate and affect your ability to travel safely.

If you are exempt and are working at the store on the day of the partial day closure, you will be paid your normal salary for the week. If you are nonexempt, you will be paid for the hours you worked, unless state law dictates otherwise.

Notified of Closure Prior to Reporting to Work

If you are nonexempt and are notified of a closure prior to reporting to work, you will not be paid during the closure, unless state law dictates otherwise. If you are exempt, you will be paid your normal salary for the week.

Benefits Coverage

Your health insurance coverage will be maintained by the Company during the closure on the same basis as if you were still working.

Extending Leave

When the Company closure ends, you are expected to report to work. Contact your manager if you cannot return to work at the end of the closure. The Company recognizes that you may need additional time off to repair extensive home damage or for other emergency situations. These will be assessed on a case-by-case basis.

If You Cannot Get to Work

Unique circumstances may affect your ability to come to work even when the Company is able to remain open. The Company recognizes that in a severe national or regional disaster, all methods of communication may be unavailable; however, you should continue to try and contact your manager, by any method possible.

Time missed under circumstances where the Company remains open and you are unable to report to work is to be used as vacation time, personal time, or is unpaid.

8.2 Drug and Alcohol Policy

Ziebart International Corporation is committed to providing a safe, healthy, and productive work environment. Consistent with this commitment, it is the intent of the Company to maintain a drug and alcohol-free workplace. Being under the influence of alcohol, illegal drugs (as classified under federal, state, or local laws), or other impairing substances while on the job may pose a serious health and safety risk to others, and will not be tolerated.

Prohibited Conduct

The Company expressly prohibits employees from engaging in the following activities when they are on duty or conducting Company business or on Company premises (whether or not they are working):

- The use, abuse, or being under the influence of alcohol, illegal drugs, or other impairing substances.
- The possession, sale, purchase, transfer, or transit of any illegal or unauthorized drug, including prescription medication that is not prescribed to the individual, or drug-related paraphernalia.
- The illegal use or abuse of prescription drugs.

While the use of marijuana has been legalized under some state laws for medicinal and/or recreational uses, it remains an illegal drug under federal law. The Company does not discriminate against employees solely on the basis of their lawful off-duty use of marijuana. You may not consume or be under the influence of marijuana while on duty or at work.

Nothing in this policy is meant to prohibit your appropriate use of over-the-counter medication or other medication that can legally be prescribed under both federal and state law if it does not impair your job performance or safety or the safety of others. If you take over-the-counter medication or other medication that can legally be prescribed under both federal and state law to treat a disability, inform your Manager or Human Resources if you believe the medication may impair your job performance, safety, or the safety of others or if you believe you need a reasonable accommodation before reporting to work while under the influence of that medication.

Employer-Sponsored Events

From time to time, the Company may sponsor social or business-related events where alcohol may be served. This policy does not prohibit the use or consumption of alcohol at these events. However, if you choose to consume alcohol at such events, you must do so responsibly and maintain your obligation to conduct yourself properly and professionally at all times.

Treatment and/or Rehabilitation

The Company may assist you in seeking treatment or rehabilitation for drug or alcohol dependency. In such cases, the Company may consider your continued employment as long as concerns regarding safety, health, production, communication, or other work-related matters are adequately addressed. The Company may also require you to obtain a medical clearance and agree to random testing and a "one-strike" rule as a condition of continued employment.

Any employee who voluntarily requests assistance to overcome a substance abuse problem will not be considered to have violated this policy. The employee's participation in a program for substance abuse will be dealt with in confidence.

Violations

An employee will be considered to have violated this policy when any of the above behaviors occur if the occurrence may adversely affect the Company's reputation, or if the employee is subsequently convicted of breaking the law. Violation of this policy may result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment.

8.3 General Safety

It is the responsibility of all Ziebart International Corporation employees to maintain a healthy and safe work environment, report any health or safety hazards, and follow the Company health and safety rules. Failure to do so may result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment. The Company also requires that all occupational illnesses or injuries be reported to your manager or Human Resources as soon as reasonably possible and that an occupational illness or injury form be completed on each reported incident.

8.4 Workplace Smoking

Ziebart International Corporation and all its subsidiaries are smoke-free environments.

This policy includes the use of electronic nicotine delivery systems – known as e-cigarettes, e-cigars, e-hookahs and e-pipes, smoke, chew, or snuff tobacco. To protect and enhance indoor air quality and contribute to the health and well-being of all employees and visitors, Ziebart International Corporation shall be entirely nicotine, smoke, and vape free.

You may not smoke, chew, and snuff tobacco or vape anywhere inside any of Ziebart buildings at any time.

Smoking is limited to designated areas outside the building and to designated times, as stated below.

Employees

You may smoke before or after work, and during your lunch break.

Designated Area

The designated area, to be determined by the Store Manager, must be behind the building or otherwise away from the view of customers.

Visitors

This smoking policy applies to visitors. If you observe a visitor violating this policy, politely remind them that Ziebart is a smoke-free establishment.

8.5 Workplace Violence

As the safety and security of our employees, vendors, contractors, and the general public is in the best interests of Ziebart International Corporation, we are committed to working with our employees to provide a work environment free from violence, intimidation, and other disruptive behavior.

Zero Tolerance Policy

The Company has a zero tolerance policy regarding workplace violence and will not tolerate acts or threats of violence, harassment, intimidation, and other disruptive behavior, either physical or verbal, that occurs in the workplace or other areas. This applies to management, co-workers, employees, and non-employees such as contractors, customers, and visitors.

Workplace violence can include oral or written statements, gestures, or expressions that communicate a direct or indirect threat of physical harm, damage to property, or any intentional behavior that may cause a person to feel threatened.

Prohibited Conduct

Prohibited conduct includes, but is not limited to:

- Physically injuring another person.
- Threatening to injure a person or damage property by any means, including verbal, written, direct, indirect, or electronic means.
- Taking any action to place a person in reasonable fear of imminent harm or offensive contact.
- Possessing, brandishing, or using a firearm on Company property or while performing Company business except as permitted by state law.
- Violating a restraining order, order of protection, injunction against harassment, or other court order.

Reporting Incidents of Violence

Report to your Manager or Human Resources, in accordance with this policy, any behavior that compromises our ability to maintain a safe work environment. All reports will be investigated immediately and kept confidential, except where there is a legitimate need to know. You are expected to cooperate in any investigation of workplace violence.

Violations

An employee will also be considered to have violated the policy when any of the above behaviors occur on or off Company property, if the occurrence may adversely affect the Company's reputation, or if the employee is subsequently convicted of breaking the law.

Violating this policy may subject you to criminal charges as well as discipline up to and including immediate termination of employment.

Retaliation

Victims and witnesses of workplace violence will not be retaliated against in any manner. In addition, you will not be subject to discipline for, based on a reasonable belief, reporting a threat or for cooperating in an investigation.

If you initiate, participate, are involved in retaliation, or obstruct an investigation into conduct prohibited by this policy, you will be subject to discipline up to and including termination.

If you believe you have been wrongfully retaliated against, immediately report the matter to Human Resources.

9.0 Trade Secrets and Inventions

9.1 Confidentiality and Nondisclosure of Trade Secrets

As a condition of employment, Ziebart International Corporation employees are required to protect the confidentiality of Company trade secrets, proprietary information, and confidential commercially sensitive information (i.e., financial or sales records/reports, marketing or business strategies/plans, product development, customer lists, patents, trademarks, etc.) related to the Company. Access to this information should be limited to a "need to know" basis and should not be used for personal benefit, disclosed, or released without prior authorization from management.

You may be required, as a condition of your employment, to sign an "Employee Non-Disclosure Agreement". If you are required to sign an Employee Non-Disclosure Agreement, read it carefully first. Your manager will be happy to answer any questions you might have.

If you have information that leads you to suspect that employees are sharing such information in violation of this policy and/or competitors are obtaining such information, you are required to inform your manager or Human Resources. Do not give out any information in response to these inquiries; instead, please handle them as follows:

- Refer all inquiries about former or current employees to the Human Resources Department.
- Refer all inquiries from the press to the Troy office and to a corporate officer.
- Refer all calls requesting dealer locations to the Customer Service Department, (248) 837-3955.

Violation of this policy may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination and may subject the violator to civil liability.

9.2 Inventions

Any invention created, in whole or in part, during your work hours, or from the use of equipment or facilities belonging to Ziebart International Corporation, is a "work for hire" and is the property of the Company.

If you intend to develop and maintain property rights to any invention that relates in any way to products or services of the Company, you are required to obtain a written waiver of this policy, signed by both you and a corporate officer.

10.0 Customer Relations

10.1 Customer, Client, and Visitor Relations

Ziebart International Corporation strives to provide the best products and services possible to our customers and clients. Our customers and clients support this business and generate your wages. You are expected to treat every customer, client, or visitor with the utmost respect and courtesy during your working time. You should never argue or act in a disrespectful manner towards a visitor or customer during your working time. If you are having problems with a customer, client, or visitor, notify your manager immediately. If a customer, client, or visitor voices a suggestion, complaint, or concern regarding our products or services, inform your manager or a member of management. Lastly, make every effort to be prompt in following up on customer, client, or visitor orders or questions. Positive customer, client, and visitor relations will go a long way to reinforce our Company as a leader in its field.

10.2 Products and Services Knowledge

As a representative of Ziebart International Corporation, you are expected to be familiar with the products and services we offer. Take every opportunity to learn the interrelationship between your department or division and the others of the Company. We consider our employees to be the best reflection of our business brand and company success.

Custom Policies

Custom Policies

Children in the Workplace

Children are permitted at the workplace for authorized events. Management may allow children at the workplace events such as Bring Your Children to Work Day and family-friendly office gatherings in which children are explicitly welcome.

Children are not permitted at the worksite as a result of daycare difficulties during normal business hours because of the legal liability of permitting such a practice.

No ill children are permitted to accompany any employee to work.

Employees must ensure that work health and safety laws are followed at all times when bringing children into the workplace.

Contact Human Resources Department for further clarification on the procedure related to this policy.

Civil Air Patrol Leave

If you serve as a member of the Civil Air Patrol, and are called to duty, you will be entitled to unpaid leave, unless the leave would unduly disrupt operations. Exempt employees may be provided time off with pay, when necessary, to comply with state and federal wage and hour laws. You must give as much notice as possible of the need for leave.

You must keep Human Resources informed should the time for leave change. You will be required to provide certification from a civil air patrol authority of eligibility for the requested leave.

Election Judge Leave

If you are appointed to serve as an election judge, you will be granted leave to serve. Employees taking leave will be paid their normal rate of pay. You must provide Human Resources with at least (20) days advance written notice of your need for leave. The written request to be absent from work must be accompanied by a certification from the appointing authority stating the hourly compensation to be paid the employee for service as an election judge and the hours during which the employee will serve.

Employee Purchase Program

Purchases of all company products and services are permitted at company owned Ziebart locations.

ELIGIBILITY

Full and/or Part Time employees and their immediate family are eligible. Immediate family is defined as the employees, spouse, children, parents, and spouse's parents. For all others, there is a family and friends discount available.

PROCEDURE

1. All purchases must be processed at the employee's home store.
2. Products and/or services purchased will be installed on company time by either the employee or a qualified technician, should the employee not be trained in this area.

3. Employee purchases will be for the cost of the product only, plus sales tax, if applicable. Payment is required at the time of service and may be in the form of cash, check or charge.
4. Branch Managers will complete a material transfer slip when making the purchase. Send a copy of the transfer slip along with the deposit slip to the Accounting Department. DO NOT CREATE AN INVOICE.

Note:

No warranties will be issued for any product/service purchased at the Employee Price. Warranties are available at the expense of the purchaser and are based on store quote.

If an employee and/or Store Manager knowingly violates the terms of the program's eligibility rules, reimbursement rules or any other requirements of the program, resulting in fraudulent reimbursement of the funds to the Store location, the company may, at its sole discretion, discipline the offending person(s). At minimum, the employee(s) will be required to repay the company the amount reimbursed to the Store. The offending employee(s) may be further disciplined, if appropriate, as determined solely by the company, up to and including termination of employment.

Personal Property

The Company cannot possibly accommodate individual security needs; therefore, you are asked not to bring to work any personal items of value that may be lost. Ziebart is not responsible for any personal belongings that are lost, damaged, or stolen.

Pregnancy and Parental Leave

FULL AND PART-TIME EMPLOYEES

Ziebart International Corporation complies with all federal and state family and medical leave laws. The Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA) allows employees up to 12 workweeks of unpaid leave annually. Paid Pregnancy and Paternal leave under this policy will run concurrently with FMLA leave. However, when these laws do not apply or an employee does not meet the eligibility requirements, the Company will consider an employee's request for pregnancy and parental leave under this policy.

Pregnancy Leave

Employees who are pregnant have the privilege to take pregnancy leave of up to four weeks in a 12-month period. All periods of pregnancy leave under this policy are paid, job-protected time away from work based on the following schedule:

- Less than one full year of service – 50 percent of salary
- After one full year of service – 80 percent of salary

Eligibility for Pregnancy Leave

All employees who are pregnant and have been employed by Ziebart International Corporation for at least twelve weeks before their expected due date are eligible for pregnancy leave.

Length and Period of Pregnancy Leave

Pregnancy leave may begin no earlier than the newborn's birthdate or the date of a medical certified need for leave. Pregnancy leave must be taken as one continuous period of leave and not intermittently. After the four weeks of pregnancy/adoption leave have been exhausted, subsequent leave will be covered under appropriate policies. The Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA) allows employees up to 12 workweeks of unpaid leave annually. Paid leave under this policy will run concurrently with FMLA leave if applicable.

Notice Requirements for Pregnancy Leave

Employees are encouraged to provide as much notice as possible before taking pregnancy leave. In some cases, Ziebart International Corporation may require the employee to provide a certificate from a medical practitioner stating the baby's due date.

Ziebart International Corporation understands that extenuating circumstances may arise forcing an employee to stop working earlier than expected. In these cases, employees have two weeks after they stop working to provide written notice of the day the pregnancy leave began or will begin.

Parental Leave

New parents have the privilege to take up to four weeks of paid, job-protected time off work based on the following schedule:

- Less than one full year of service – 50 percent of salary
- After one full year of service or greater – 80 percent of salary

If both parents are employees, Ziebart has the right to determine if one or both parents may access the paid benefits of this policy. Both however, continue to be entitled to family and medical leave if eligible.

Eligibility for Parental Leave

All employees who have been employed by Ziebart International Corporation for at least 12 weeks are entitled to parental leave.

For the purposes of parental leave, the term "parent" refers to the father or mother of a newborn and includes a person with whom a child is placed for adoption and a person who is in a relationship of some permanence with a parent of a child and who intends to treat the child as his or her own. This definition includes same-sex couples.

Length and Period of Parental Leave

All new parents are entitled to take up to four weeks of parental leave. At management's discretion, parental leave may be taken as one continuous period of leave or as intermittent leave. Parental leave benefits expire 52 weeks after the newborn's birthdate or the date the child first came into the employee's care, custody, or control. After the four weeks of parental leave have been exhausted, subsequent leave will be covered under appropriate policies. The Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA) allows employees up to 12 workweeks of unpaid leave annually. Paid leave under this policy will run concurrently with FMLA leave if applicable.

Notice Requirements for Parental Leave

Employees are encouraged to provide as much notice as possible before taking their parental leave. However, employees must inform Ziebart International Corporation in writing at least four weeks before beginning leave. If an employee is also taking a pregnancy leave, they are encouraged to provide notice of the parental leave when they give notice of their pregnancy leave.

Ziebart International Corporation understands that, in some circumstances, employees may have to stop working because a child is born or comes into their custody, care or control earlier than expected. In these cases, employees have up to two weeks after they stop working to provide written notice of the day the parental leave began or will begin.

Employees that need to change their parental leave start date must provide a new written notice at least two weeks before the new date (or as much as practicable if the need is not foreseeable). Employees that need to change their parental leave end date must provide a new written notice at least two weeks before the new date.

Continuation of Rights and Benefit Plans During Pregnancy and Parental Leave

While away from work during a period of pregnancy or parental leave, employees continue to enjoy many of their benefits and rights.

Right to Reinstatement

At the end of a period of pregnancy or parental leave, employees who return to work will be reinstated in the position they occupied prior to taking leave, or if that position is not available, in a comparable position.

Ziebart International Corporation reserves the right to dismiss employees for legitimate reasons unrelated to their use of pregnancy or parental leave.

Continuation of Benefits

Health insurance benefits will continue to be provided during the paid pregnancy or paternity leave at the same rate as in effect before the leave was taken regardless of the length of service.

Employees on pregnancy or parental leave have a right to continue to take part in the following Ziebart International Corporation benefit plans:

· Medical · Dental · Vision · Ancillary · FSA

Employees must continue to pay their share of the premiums for any benefit plans that were offered to the employee before the leave. The Human Resources department will provide a detailed payment schedule in writing. A failure to pay as required will result in the termination of benefits.

Volunteer Emergency Response Leave

Ziebart must allow employees who are volunteer fire fighters, volunteer fire police officers or volunteer members of an ambulance service or rescue squad to be late for or absent from work if they responded to an emergency before their workday started, if certification requirements are met. Employees must make a reasonable effort to notify their supervisor that they may be absent or late. Job protections apply.

Closing Statement

Thank you for reading our handbook. We hope it has provided you with an understanding of our mission, history, and structure as well as our current policies and guidelines. We look forward to working with you to create a successful company and a safe, productive, and pleasant workplace.

Ziebart International Corporation

Acknowledgment of Receipt and Review

By signing below, I acknowledge that I have received a copy of the Company Employee Handbook (handbook) and that I have read it, understand it, and agree to comply with it. I understand that the Company has the maximum discretion permitted by law to interpret, administer, change, modify, or delete the rules, regulations, procedures, and benefits contained in the handbook at any time with or without notice. No statement or representation by a supervisor, manager, or any other employee, whether oral or written, can supplement or modify this handbook. Changes can only be made if approved in writing by the CEO/President of the Company. I also understand that any delay or failure by the Company to enforce any rule, regulation, or procedure contained in the handbook does not constitute a waiver on behalf of the Company or affect the right of the Company to enforce such rule, regulation, or procedure in the future.

I understand that neither this handbook nor any other communication by a management representative or other, whether oral or written, is intended in any way to create a contract of employment. I further understand that, unless I have a written employment agreement signed by an authorized Company representative, I am employed "at-will" (to the extent permitted by law) and this handbook does not modify my "at-will" employment status.

If I am covered by a written employment agreement (signed by an authorized Company representative) or a collective bargaining agreement that conflicts with the terms of this handbook, I understand that the terms of the employment agreement or collective bargaining agreement will control.

This handbook is not intended to preclude or dissuade employees from engaging in legally protected activities under the National Labor Relations Act (NLRA). This handbook is not intended to violate any local, state, or federal law. No provision or policy applies or will be enforced if it conflicts with or is superseded by any requirement or prohibition contained in federal, state, or local law, or regulation. Furthermore, nothing in this handbook prohibits an employee from reporting concerns to, filing a charge or complaint with, making lawful disclosures to, providing documents or other information to, or participating in an investigation or hearing conducted by the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC), National Labor Relations Board (NLRB), Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), or any other federal, state, or local agency charged with the enforcement of any laws.

This handbook supersedes any previous handbook or policy statements, whether written or oral, issued by Ziebart International Corporation.

If I have any questions about the content or interpretation of this handbook, I will contact Human Resources.
